ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative Ching: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. The Heritage Caucus, Chair Cindy Evans and I, wanted to remind everybody that there still are bills to be signed at the Heritage Caucus.

"I would be remiss not to mention that this weekend starts the celebration of Chinese New Year, the Year of the Ox. And there are a few things that are going on. There is of course, an open house of Chinatown, with the blessings of our small businesses. There's the Chinese parade, the Chinatown parade that goes on, on Saturday.

"But I wanted to share something, because one of the things I share with one of my favorite colleagues in high school is, we're both the Year of the Ox. And this is our President who is the Year of the Ox, President Barry or Barack Obama.

"And I'd like to read just something about the ox, if you don't mind. I'm taking this from someone here, Fran Kirk. Kung Hee Fat Choy: Mine is the stabilizing force that perpetuates the cycle of life. I stand immobile against the test of adversity, resolute, and unimpeachable. I seek to serve integrity, to bear the burden of righteousness. I abide by the laws of nature, patiently pushing the wheel of fate. Thus I wave my destiny. Thus I am the Ox.' And that is our President.

"I just also wanted to mention that this is a beautiful example of heritage tourism, and I know that there has been some talk about that. If anyone has a chance, you'll see visitors and residents alike truly appreciating what's going on right nearby in Chinatown. Thank you."
