"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support with reservations. H.B. 64 prohibits disorderly conduct by person(s) knowingly producing noise by operation of yard equipment between the hours of 8:00 pm and 8:00 am any day of the week.

"As printed in the U.S. News and World Report cover story on December 18, 2008 entitled "50 Ways to Improve Your Life in 2009" the author calls for silencing noise pollution. "Hearing loss, in fact, is the most obvious medical consequence of noise pollution, but it is hardly the only one, explains environmental psychologist Arline Bronzaft. In her research, Bronzaft found that constant noise exposure can impede children's learning ability and cognitive development. And beyond all that, periodically, "you've got to take a break from sound," says Bronzaft. "We need some serenity in our lives."

"While I support the need to regulate the operation of noise producing yard equipment I also recognize the possible financial impact that H.B. 64 may have on landscape companies.

"My reservations are based on the complaints of landscape companies that in this economy they would have to sacrifice income, losing additional hours of work."

"Mr. Speaker, I will vote in favor of Standing Committee Report No. 337, but would like to express a reservation. This would devote 40 percent of the Transient Accommodations Tax toward product development. And while I support the product development aspect of the tourism industry, I think at this critical juncture, when our hotel occupancy rates are hovering at 60 percent, it's imperative that we concentrate our resources more on marketing. Thank you, very much."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in strong support of H.B. 681 – Relating to the Transient Accommodations Tax. This bill requires that not less than 40 percent of the Tourism Special Fund be used for tourism product development and cultural programs. H.B. 681 insures that sufficient monies will be spent on product development (i.e. preserving / promoting culture) for tourism.

"As stated by Mona Abadir, Board President of Hawaii Capital Cultural Coalition: ... (product development) "...can work as a catalyst in many intertwined areas of endeavor: stimulating creative economies and workforce, educational outreach of organizations, generating greater access to the area, reinforcing our values of preservation of our stories and treasures, and enhancing cultural tourism. Our mutual partnership and collaboration with time, resources and energy towards these ends and will achieve a return on investment that will exceed all expectations."

"The State of Hawaii has been greatly impacted by the economic changes in tourism. It is important now more than ever that we build on Hawaii's greatest resource - our culture. It would behoove us as legislators to give our support to product development that will work on preserving culture while promoting tourism.

"In addition, I would like to enter into the Journal the attached testimony of Ms. Lorraine Lunow-Luke, Coordinator, Hawaii Capital Cultural District of February 5, 2009 to the Chairman of the House Committee on Tourism, Culture and International Affairs.

February 5, 2009

Dear Representative Manahan:

I am writing to express my strong support for continuing to adequately fund the New Product Development division of the Hawaii Tourism Authority. Our unique heritage is what distinguishes Hawaii from other tropical destinations. The division's investment in programs that help visitors access and experience Hawaii's special cultural heritage are essential for the long-term health of Hawaii's visitor industry.

For example, a grant from the New Product Development division led directly to the recent introduction of legislation in Congress to designate the Hawaii Capital National Heritage Area in Honolulu. This designation will bring together the many cultural treasures of Kawaiahoi, Downtown, Nu'uano and Kapalama into a cohesive district where kama'aina and visitors alike can experience our heritage. The grant made under the New Product Development division's Heritage Corridor Program supported the Hawaii Capital Cultural Coalition's National Heritage Area Feasibility Study which served as the application for designation.

National Heritage Areas generate culture and heritage tourism by creating national and international visibility for an area's cultural assets, providing National Park Service branding and marketing, and opening the doors to funding for planning, design, interpretive centers, and other amenities that will improve the visitor experience.

The Hawaii Capital Cultural Coalition (HCCC) is a nonprofit partnership of 25 Honolulu arts and cultural organizations and more than 40 businesses, public agencies, and service organizations who are working together to leverage the rich concentration of historic, cultural, and economic assets located in Honolulu's historic core to create one of the great cultural destinations of the world, attracting both visitors and residents, contributing to the area's economic vitality, and enhancing our quality of life.

Respectfully submitted,

Lorraine Lurow-Luke
HCCC Coordinator

"Mr. Speaker. On 339, I will be voting 'no' on this measure. I think it's very unwise to remove the chiefs of the Department of Business, Economic Development, and Tourism, the head of the Department of Transportation, and the Chair of the Board of Land and Natural Resources from the Hawaii Tourism Authority.

"They were only ex-officio, but it's very helpful to the leaders of industry, to have someone there that you can talk to directly about State parks, or about harbor issues, or about airport issues. They will be moved to a separate advisory committee, but I think they are more helpful when they sit on the actual Authority, albeit without a vote. Thank you, very much."

"I just want to note my support, but with some reservations on Stand. Com. Report 338. The purpose of this is to reduce the term of the Hawaii Tourism Authority contracts from five years to two years, except for some contracts related to the Hawaii Convention Center. My only concern is that this could possibly handcuff the Tourism Authority for perhaps maybe dealing with the Pro-Bowl trying to come back to Hawaii. "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support with reservations. H.B. 136 establishes the Graffiti Eradication Sentencing Program within the Judiciary to allow a person who has committed an act of graffiti, to discharge a community service sentence through graffiti eradication activities.

"I strongly support the efforts of the Graffiti Eradication Sentencing Program and the aspect of the bill which requires community service sentencing. However, I do have concerns over the cost implications during this economy and hope efforts to do this through the non-profit and private sector could be examined.

"Another concern is the lack of proper implementation. This bill as written does not address proper identification and coordination. It needs to include identification of perpetrators and cooperation between agencies. In order for H.B. 136 to be effective and cost efficient, cooperation and communication is essential."

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I would like to cast a 'no' vote, and I'd like to explain why. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, this bill is to make an emergency appropriation in the amount of almost $2 million for the Judiciary to cover their electricity payments.

"Mr. Speaker, if you take a look at the record of the votes on the Committee Report, you'll see that nine members voted with reservations. One, myself, voted 'no.' And only five voted up to do this. And the Committee Report really explains why. That there's a lack of a serious effort by the Judiciary to reduce electricity consumption. That there appears to be no interest of the Judiciary in using available technology to conserve or generate sources of electrical power. And that the bill itself, with its Committee Report and vote record is to send a message to the Judiciary that continued mismanagement of energy is not acceptable.

"And Mr. Speaker, I note again, this is for an emergency appropriation. An emergency appropriation. Not one that goes through the regular process of the legislature. I would hope that this bill will be tabled and would not move further, and that the Judiciary would learn that it should do, as many others in our State are doing, and look at ways that they can conserve energy, rather than thinking they can just bring the bill to the legislature and that the legislature would just throw the money, the $2 million, to them. Thank you."

So, I think that that would hopefully send a message. Thank you, very much."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, on Stand. Com. No. 375, that's the bill on the display of dead body. I'd like to cast a 'no' vote on this. I think it's very onerous to ask the Department of Health to enforce this provision and give out permits for these types of displays. I don't think it'll happen very often, but I don't think they have any expertise on these types of displays.

"Also, I saw in a provision, that if a body of a minor was displayed, you would have to have the written consent of the parents, and I think that's a very onerous provision in this bill. I think it's still in the measure. So, just to flag it out, I'd like to vote 'no' on this measure. Thank you.
