JUSTIFICATION SHEET

DEPARTMENT: Taxation

TITLE: A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TAX ADMINISTRATION.

PURPOSE: Increase the limit on revenues collected by the special enforcement section that are deposited into the tax administration special fund from $700,000 to $1,000,000.

MEANS: Amend section 235-20.5(a), Hawaii Revised Statutes.

JUSTIFICATION: The department finds that the special enforcement section is a valuable tool in assessing and collecting tax and in encouraging voluntary compliance, in particular from the cash economy and from transient accommodations operations. Increased funding for the special enforcement section will expand its workforce and improve its operations by making greater use of data analytics to identify non-compliance and to investigate non-filers and under-reporters of general excise and transient accommodations taxes. It will also help increase coverage of our neighbor islands.

Impact on the public: Funding of a larger workforce will enable the special enforcement section to conduct more field visits and attend more public events. This will result in greater presence and public awareness of the section, encourage greater voluntary compliance, and serve as a deterrent against failing to comply with the State's tax laws by non-compliant business operators.

Impact on the department and other agencies:
The department will benefit from a more robustly funded special enforcement section. Since its inception, the special enforcement section has secured significant numbers of delinquent and improperly filed tax returns as well as the accompanying tax revenue for the State. These collections amount to multiples of the section's costs of operations.

GENERAL FUND: $300,000.
OTHER FUNDS: None.
OTHER AFFECTED AGENCIES: None.
EFFECTIVE DATE: Upon approval.
