

TESTIMONY BY WESLEY K. MACHIDA
DIRECTOR, DEPARTMENT OF BUDGET AND FINANCE
STATE OF HAWAII
TO THE SENATE COMMITTEE ON WAYS AND MEANS ON
SENATE BILL NO. 284 S.D. 2 (Proposed)

March 4, 2015
10:00 A.M.

RELATING TO TRANSIENT ACCOMMODATIONS TAX

Senate Bill No. 284, S.D. 2 (proposed), allocates $3 million of transient accommodations tax (TAT) revenues to a newly established Department of Budget and Finance (Department) special fund and further authorizes the Department to issue $40 million in revenue bonds and to provide the bond proceeds to the Department of Land and Natural Resources (DLNR) for the acquisition of a conservation easement in Turtle Bay, Oahu. This bill further allocates TAT revenues of $3 million annually to the Department to pay the debt service on the revenue bonds and ongoing expenses related to the bonds.

The Department supports this measure. The Department, Hawaii Tourism Authority and DLNR, had various discussions with respect to the responsibilities surrounding the issuance of revenue bonds and the acquisition and management of the conservation easement pursuant to Act 81, SLH 2014. The general consensus was that, in this specific instance, it may be more appropriate for the Department to issue the revenue bonds and have DLNR responsible for the acquisition and ongoing oversight of the Turtle Bay conservation easement. The proposed language in the attached proposed Senate Bill 284, S.D. 2 would accomplish this intent.

Current market conditions with minimal structuring requirements may allow for the issuance of $40,000,000 of revenue bonds with annual debt service and related issuance expenses being less than $3,000,000 per year. However, should interest rates rise and/or investors require increased structuring considerations, such as a revenue coverage ratio in excess of one to one or the funding of a debt service reserve fund, additional funding in excess of $3,000,000 per year may be necessary to finance the acquisition of the conservation easement in Turtle Bay.

In addition, the issuance of general obligation bonds would be a lower cost financing alternative and more efficient means of financing as it would not require the establishment a new revenue bond credit.

Thank you for the opportunity to provide testimony on this measure.

A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO THE TRANSIENT ACCOMMODATIONS TAX.

All transient accommodations taxes shall be paid into the state treasury each month within ten days after collection and shall be kept by the state director of finance in special accounts for distribution as provided in this subsection.

As used in this subsection, "fiscal year" means the twelve-month period beginning on July 1 of a calendar year and ending on June 30 of the following calendar year."

PART II

SECTION 3. The purpose of this part is to establish a method to use transient accommodations tax revenues to pay for the debt service on revenue bonds, the proceeds of which will be used to acquire a conservation easement in Turtle Bay, Oahu, for the protection, preservation, and enhancement of natural resources important to the State.

The legislature finds that the transient accommodations tax revenues are substantially derived from the visitor industry and comprise user taxes. The source of funding for the Turtle Bay conservation easement will be revenue bonds issued by the department of budget and finance. The debt service on the revenue bonds will be paid from the transient accommodations tax revenues. The proceeds from the revenue bonds and the transient accommodations tax revenues will be deposited into the department of budget and finance special fund. The legislature finds that the financing of the Turtle Bay conservation easement by the department of budget and finance is essential to the execution of this transaction and is for a public purpose.

Because chapter 171, Hawaii Revised Statutes, requires that the Turtle Bay conservation easement be owned by the department of land and natural resources, the revenue bond proceeds will be transferred from the department of budget and finance special fund to the Turtle Bay conservation easement special fund administered by the department of land and natural resources. The department of land and natural resources will then acquire the Turtle Bay conservation easement.

The legislature finds that the acquisition of the Turtle Bay conservation easement by the department of land and natural resources is for the purpose of supporting, encouraging and enhancing the natural beauty of Oahu's north shore, which, by sustaining the visitor industry attracting visitors to the State, will contribute to the amounts of transient accommodations tax revenues collected. The legislature further finds that the acquisition of the Turtle Bay conservation easement by the department of land and natural resources is crucial to the protection, preservation, and enhancement of the State's natural resources and to the State's economic well-being, and is for a public purpose.

This part:

(1) Authorizes the department of budget and finance to issue $40,000,000 in revenue bonds and transfers and appropriates the proceeds to the department of land and natural resources to acquire a conservation easement in Turtle Bay, Oahu;

(2) Prioritizes and allocates transient accommodations tax revenues of $3,000,000 annually to the department of budget and finance to pay the debt service on the revenue bonds and ongoing expenses related to the issuance of the bonds;

(3) Deletes the debt restructuring requirement on the reimbursable general obligation bonds used to finance the convention center since this provision can be handled administratively; and

(4) Repeals various provisions of Act 81, Session Laws of Hawaii 2014.

SECTION 4. Chapter 37, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended by adding two new sections to be appropriately designated and to read as follows:

"§37-A Revenue bonds for conservation easement in Turtle Bay, Oahu. (a) The department of budget and finance shall issue revenue bonds to provide funding for the acquisition of a conservation easement in Turtle Bay, Oahu, for the protection, preservation, and enhancement of natural resources important to the State. (d) The department of budget and finance special fund shall be exempt from the central service expenses of section 36-27 and departmental administrative expenses of section 36-30."

SECTION 5. Chapter 171, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended by adding two new sections to be appropriately designated and to read as follows:

"§171-A Turtle Bay conservation easement special fund. (a) There is established the Turtle Bay conservation easement special fund to be administered by the department of land and natural resources. Moneys in the special fund shall be used for the acquisition of a conservation easement in Turtle Bay, Oahu, for the protection, preservation, and enhancement of natural resources important to the State. The conservation easement shall be in compliance with chapters 171 and 198.

(b) All interest earned on the moneys in the special fund shall be credited to the special fund.

(c) The Turtle Bay conservation easement special fund shall be exempt from the central service expenses of section 36-27 and departmental administrative expenses of section 36-30.

§171-B Turtle Bay appraisal and due diligence. Any appraisal and due diligence completed by the Hawaii tourism authority may be used by the department of land and natural resources for the acquisition of the Turtle Bay conservation easement."

SECTION 6. Section 87A-42, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended by amending subsection (d) to read as follows:

"(d) In any fiscal year subsequent to the 2017-2018 fiscal year in which a county public employer's contributions into the fund are less than the amount of the annual required contribution, the amount that represents the excess of the annual required contribution over the county public employer's contributions shall be deposited into the fund from a portion of all transient accommodations tax revenues collected by the department of taxation under section ~~[237D-6.5(b)(3)]~~ 237D-6.5(b)(4). The director of finance shall deduct the amount necessary to meet the county public employer's annual required contribution from the revenues derived under section ~~[237D-6.5(b)(3)]~~ 237D-6.5(b)(4) and transfer the amount to the board for deposit into the appropriate account of the separate trust fund."
