The Administration of the Office of Hawaiian Affairs (OHA) will recommend that the OHA Board of Trustees SUPPORT SB1451, which aspires to establish Lā Kūʻokoʻa, November 28, as a state holiday in lieu of President’s Day, the third Monday in February.

Reestablishing Lā Kūʻokoʻa as an official holiday restores important connections to Hawai‘i’s rich cultural and political history, a history that is largely ignored and largely left out of public school curricula and public discourse. As a result, Lā Kūʻokoʻa passes by each year without formal recognition by the state. Lā Kūʻokoʻa commemorates the day Great Britain and France, through joint proclamation, formally recognized the Kingdom of Hawai‘i as an independent nation. With this recognition, the Hawaiian Kingdom entered treaties and engaged in foreign diplomacy with the major nations of the world. Lā Kūʻokoʻa was celebrated as a national public holiday under the Kingdom of Hawai‘i, the Provisional Government, the Republic of Hawai‘i, and the Territory of Hawai‘i.

The State of Hawai‘i should restore the celebration of Lā Kūʻokoʻa as a means to accurately remember and honor our collective history. Lā Kūʻokoʻa is a source of pride for many Native Hawaiians as it demonstrates the political acumen of our kūpuna and the status of the Hawaiian Kingdom as an active and respected member of the international community. Over the years, community celebrations and recognition of Lā Kūʻokoʻa have grown substantially. As Lā Kūʻokoʻa has begun to re-gain its prestige, with organizations holding celebrations on November 28 across the islands, it is appropriate and timely for the state itself to formally recognize the unique historic and political significance of this day to all who call Hawai‘i home.

Hawai‘i’s special heritage and the various holidays we currently celebrate distinguish us from other states. Previously, Hawai‘i lawmakers adopted official holidays that reflect this distinct past, including Prince Jonah Kūhiō Kalanianaʻole Day and King Kamehameha I Day. Lā Kūʻokoʻa merits joining these unique Hawaiian holidays.

Accordingly, we respectfully urge your Committee to PASS this measure. Mahalo nui loa for the opportunity to testify.

Dear Chair Rhoads, Vice Chair Wakai, and Committee Members:

RE: SB 1451 Relating to State Holidays

I have seen the near-unanimous support for re-establishing Hawaiian Recognition Day, but I must voice my objection to the current version of SB 1451. I apologize for not catching this bill when it was heard in its first committee.

My problem with this bill is not the idea of making Hawaiian Recognition Day a state holiday. Rather, I am strongly against doing away with Presidents’ Day, part of our national heritage, part of being one of the United States of America. We are justly proud of the history of the Hawaiian nation, but we are also a part of the United States. It is not inconsistent to value both ancestries, and one legacy need not, and should not, be sacrificed for the sake of the other.

I would not have a problem if SB 1451 simply added a new holiday to our calendar. However, I remember that in order to establish Martin Luther King Day, there was a belief that we could not add an additional holiday to our schedule, so we did away with Columbus/Discoverer’s Day. If it still is the opinion of the Legislature that there are “too many holidays,” then I would urge that the holiday that singles out one religion—Good Friday—is the one that should be eliminated, and such action would be justified in the name of separation of church and state.

Yet another alternative (but I would defer to the advocates whether such an arrangement would be acceptable or desirable) would be to make Hawaiian Recognition Day the fourth Thursday (or even fourth Friday) in November. That would combine the new holiday with Thanksgiving, with which it would overlap every few years anyway.

If the only way to adopt a Hawaiian Recognition Day is to eliminate Presidents’ Day, I hope you will not pass SB 1451. If the new holiday can be adopted in a way that honors our Hawaiian heritage and recognizes our American heritage, then I would look forward to supporting such legislation.

Thank you for the work you are doing, and for your consideration of this strongly held belief.

Respectfully Submitted,

Re: SB 1451 RELATING TO STATE HOLIDAYS.
Reestablishes La Kuʻokoʻa, Hawaiian Recognition Day, as an official state holiday.

TESTIMONY IN OPPOSITION

It is both funny and sad to see that so many legislators have signed their names in support of this bill, which is deceptively named and would be bad policy. Pandering to anti-American secessionists is a very bad idea. This bill is not about memorializing a success of diplomacy from 1843, it's about supporting a highly divisive cult of activists who want to enlist you as a partisan in an ideological civil war which threatens to rip the 50th star off our flag.
Maybe you'll step away from this bill when you see how your predecessors in the 2007 legislature were lied to and fooled by the same gang now pushing this bill, and then those legislators were justly ridiculed for their pandering.

The following points are proved in detail later in this testimony. Please take the time to read the details.

1. The word "ku'oko'a" does NOT mean "recognition" -- it means "independence". Look it up in the dictionary. Also apply, to two other bills, this lesson on how easy it is to fool you legislators about the meaning of Hawaiian words -- I refer to SB195 and SB642, which would make it law that if a bill "was originally drafted in Hawaiian and the English version was translated based on the Hawaiian version, the Hawaiian version shall be held binding."

2. Look at the reasons openly stated for why Hawaiian independence activists have pushed to revive this holiday. They want the "fake-state" legislature to go on record that Hawaii has always been AND REMAINS an independent nation, or should be re-established as such. If you agree with that agenda then you should resign from the legislature of the STATE of Hawaii, which you have sworn an oath to support and defend.

3. The legislature was badly burned in 2007 when every Democrat voted in favor of officially creating a new permanent holiday every April 30, to be called "Hawaiian Restoration Day." Please note that the perennial April 30 holiday solemnly enacted by the 2007 legislature is not included in the list of holidays in Section 2 of today's bill. Why not? When you read item #4, you'll discover that what you should do is to add the now-official holiday of April 30 to the list in Section 2 WITH A LINE THROUGH THE NAME AND DATE TO INDICATE THAT THIS BILL IS REPEALING IT just as this bill proposes to do with Presidents' Day.
4. Some of the same people who push today's bill were also pushers of the 2007 bill, knowingly telling falsehoods that President Grover Cleveland had proclaimed April 30 to be a U.S. holiday of fasting and repentance for the overthrow of the Hawaiian monarchy. You can see for yourselves a 4-page flyer that makes a laughing stock of the legislature for falling for that absurdity, especially after being presented with proof that President Cleveland's alleged proclamation was actually an April Fools [not April 30] satire against Cleveland published as an editorial in an anti-Cleveland newspaper and that the resolution's authors were aware of that fact. Maybe they couldn't imagine that a "reverend" would knowingly and cunningly tell a lie for a political purpose. A webpage provides further details about the actual newspaper editorial, and about the fact that the pushers of the resolution knew their testimony was false.

--------DETAILS PROVING THOSE POINTS--------

1. The meaning of "Ku'oko'a" or "La Ku'oko'a"

I rely upon the large Pukui/Elbert Hawaiian dictionary, (c)1986 version. The entire entry at the top of page 184 says:

As you can easily see, the word "Recognition" is never mentioned anywhere in the definition of "ku'oko'a." This bill is extremely deceptive when it says (page 1, lines 9-10) La Ku'oko'a was known as Hawaiian Recognition Day, and when the description of the bill in the hearing notice says the bill "Reestablishes La Ku'oko'a, Hawaiian Recognition Day, as an official state holiday."
2. Hawaiian independence activists seek to revive "La Ku'oko'a" as an assertion that Hawaii is now, or should be, a sovereign independent nation. This bill also falsely states that "La Ku'oko'a" was actively celebrated throughout the Kingdom, Provisional Government, Republic, and several years into the Territorial period.

Leon Siu styles himself as Foreign Minister of "Ke Aupuni o Hawai'i, the Hawaiian Kingdom." For many years he has actively traveled to United Nations meetings in New York and Geneva (Switzerland) asking delegates of other nations to publicly challenge U.S. sovereignty over Hawaii. In 2018 his buddies in the independence "movement" staged a publicity stunt nominating him for the Nobel Peace Prize. On November 20, 2018 he authored another in a series of "Ke Aupuni Update"s in the Free Hawaii blog, entitled "Celebrating La Ku'oko'a - Independence Day". His excellency "Foreign Minister Siu" has never referred to the Kingdom holiday as "Hawaiian Recognition Day."

This bill says "Throughout the 1850s and 1870s, Hawai'i celebrated La Ku'oko'a with lu'au, music, and marches. The celebration grew under the reign of King Kalakaua, with formal proclamations sent by official circular to the foreign diplomatic corps in Hawai'i and the Hawaiian Kingdom consuls abroad, informing them of the holiday. The day remained a national holiday under the Provisional Government of Hawai'i (1893), the Republic of Hawai'i (1894-1898), and the initial years of the Territory of Hawai'i."

But the Free Hawaii blog of November 27, 2018 says "After a failed armed attempt by Hawaiians to retake their Kingdom in 1895, the usurpers announced that Lā Kū'oko'a would no longer be celebrated, and the American holiday Thanksgiving Day would be the official national holiday instead. Removing a holiday like Hawai'i Independence Day was a way to cover up and try to destroy the history and identity of the Hawaiian Kingdom and its people. ... Tomorrow's celebration of Lā Kū'oko'a asserts that Hawai'i is still an independent nation, even under prolonged illegal occupation."
A writer of Hawaiian history describes how a very similar Kingdom holiday of even greater importance was hugely celebrated for a few years but then fell out of public awareness just like Ka La Ku'oko'a. July 31, 1843 was the day when King Kauikeaouli Kamehameha III uttered his famous statement from the steps of Kawaiaha'o Church: "Ua mau ke ea o ka 'aina i ka pono." (Sovereignty has been preserved because it is righteous). For several years this date was actively celebrated as a national holiday: Ka La Ho'iho'i Ea (Sovereignty Restoration Day). Today's sovereignty activists like to say it was a national holiday for all the remaining years of the Kingdom. However, a book friendly to the activists' general viewpoint says otherwise. Helena G. Allen, "The Betrayal of Liliuokalani" (Glendale CA, Arthur H. Clark Co., 1982), p. 61, says the following: "In the afternoon [July 31, 1843] Kamehameha III went in a solemn procession with his chiefs to Kawaiahao Church ... A ten-day celebration of Restoration Day followed, and was annually observed. The last of the Restoration Day celebrations came in 1847. The missionary element in the government were thereafter to declare the celebrations 'too expensive.' ... A thousand special riders, five abreast ... were followed by 2500 regular horsemen ... arrived at the Nuuanu picnic ground in a pouring rain, with spirits undampened. ... It was to be the last of such Hawaiian festivities ..."

3 and 4: What happened in 2007 when every Democrat in the legislature foolishly voted to establish a permanent holiday on April 30, called "Hawaiian Restoration Day," despite testimony proving that the alleged historical basis for the holiday was completely false and that the pushers of the legislation knew it was false. Are you legislators today so gullible, and are you prepared to be ridiculed like your colleagues were 12 years ago? See the evidence, and the flyer.
Read the full text of House Concurrent Resolution 82 (2007) "PROCLAIMING APRIL 30 OF EVERY YEAR AS HAWAIIAN RESTORATION DAY." Some highlights are:

"... in a proclamation dated February 25, 1894, President Cleveland declared that "April 30 [of every year] be set aside as a day of solemn fasting, and prayer for the injustice to me [President Grover Cleveland] and my great good sister [Queen Liliuokalani] for her speedy return to the throne" ... the Legislature hereby proclaims April 30 of each year as a special day of remembrance, education, and prayer, for people of all faiths, for Grover Cleveland, a great American who stood for the true values and principles of the United States Constitution, and for "liberty and justice for all"

He repeated his local and mainland propaganda campaign in 2007 and pushed a resolution through the Hawaii legislature citing the joke proclamation as real. In 2008 the Honolulu Star-Bulletin published a story describing the Cleveland proclamation as a fact and refused to publish a correction. In 2010 Patterson made a trip to Caldwell N.J. in furtherance of his hoax, where the town council gave him a check for $2920 to defray his expenses." Aloha Senator Rhoads and members of the Judiciary Committee,

The Hawaiian Affairs Caucus submits testimony in support of this measure. In the spirit of continued reconciliation between the State of Hawai‘i and the Native Hawaiian community, this measure seeks to establish a state holiday recognizing the independence of the former Kingdom of Hawai‘i, LÄ‘OKO‘A. It was once a national holiday for the Kingdom of Hawai‘i, initially declared in 1843, and later reaffirmed by the Republic of Hawai‘i in 1896.

LÄ‘OKO‘A represents a significant period in Hawaii’s history by celebrating the recognition of the Kingdom’s independence from the world’s political and economic super powers of the time, Great Britain, France, and the United States. As it inspired and lended to a greater sense of pride for Kingdom subjects, Hawaiian independence day has done the same for Native Hawaiians and the like today. Efforts to educate the greater community about this significant part of history are ongoing. An annual celebration is held in the month of November at Thomas Square Park with educational panels, speeches, food and music, as well as the City and County of Honolulu's recent dedication of the Kamehameha III statue, Hawaiian flag and pole, and state motto memorials, all at the Thomas Square Park. This legislation builds on that momentum with the restoration of this important holiday.

We urge your committee to pass this measure. Mahalo for your consideration.

RE: SB 1451, Relating to State Holidays

E ka Luna Hoʻomalu Rhoads, ka Hope Luna Hoʻomalu Wakai, a me nā Lālā Kenekoa o kēia Kōmike, aloha! INPEACE, Bishop Museum, Papa Ola Lōkahi, and Kamehameha Schools submit this joint-testimony in strong SUPPORT of SB 1451, which reestablishes Lā Kūʻokoʻa, Hawaiian Recognition Day, as an official State holiday.

The celebration of Lā Kūʻokoʻa will recognize Hawaiʻi’s unique history and cultivate Native Hawaiian identity by familiarizing our community with a substantial achievement of our people – the historical recognition of the Kingdom of Hawaiʻi as an independent nation from three global powers. This holiday has and continues to be a point of pride in the Native Hawaiian community that will be elevated by its official recognition as a State holiday.

In recent years, Lā Kūʻokoʻa has been celebrated annually with community festivities in a variety of locations, which have included traditional ceremonies, food, music, cultural arts and practices, and education. The reestablishment of Lā Kūʻokoʻa as an official holiday will expand these festivities throughout Hawaiʻi, increasing community awareness about Hawaiʻi’s history, culture, and ancestral knowledge and providing more opportunities for cultural education for Native Hawaiians and the larger community.

With this testimony, our organizations collectively submit our SUPPORT of SB 1451 and ask you to advance this measure. Mahalo for the opportunity to testify.
Aloha Kakou,

I support SB1451 as an accoutrement of the Hawaii Islands.

Regards,

Robert Quartero
Aloha Senators Rhoads and Wakai,

My name is Naomi Nihipali and I am a graduate student at the University of Hawaii at Mānoa, Myron B. Thompson School of Social work. I am testifying in support of SB1451 which aims to reestablish Lā Kuʻokoʻa as an official state holiday.

Growing up, I never celebrated this holiday. Upon returning to the University of Hawaiʻi, I was introduced to the holiday and completed my own research, recognizing the events leading up to this celebratory day. With knowledge comes power. This knowledge has helped to shape my identity today as a kanaka scholar. This past year was the first year I was able to share this knowledge with my own children and educate them about Lā Kuʻokoʻa.

I support the recognition of Lā Kuʻokoʻa for all of Hawaiʻi to learn about the true history of our nation. I support the recognition of Lā Kuʻokoʻa to help our people restore a part of history that has been lost to many of our families for generations. I support the recognition of Lā Kuʻokoʻa for our future generations, so all keiki of Hawaiʻi will grow up learning about Hawaiʻis true history.

Me ke aloha,
Naomi Nihipali
naomifn@hawaii.edu
I have no problem with the State of Hawaii adopting La Ku`oko`a, Hawaiian Recognition Day as a State holiday. However, I do have concerns about adding another state holiday to November, when there are already 2-3 depending on whether it is an election year. The 28th is often very close to Thanksgiving. We need a state holiday in October, as there are none now since Columbus Day was repealed.

But more importantly, I believe it should not replace President’s Day, which is an important national holiday, and the only holiday in February. I feel strongly that it should replace Good Friday because Good Friday often falls near, and sometime on, Kuhio Day. But more importantly, Good Friday is a purely Christian holiday. Unlike Christmas, it has not been secularized. There are no Good Friday sales or other secular events celebrating Good Friday.

Although years ago the 9th Circuit Court of Appeals upheld it as a State Holiday because it was part of the State’s collective bargaining agreement, I believe Good Friday is an unconstituional establishment of religion, in violation of the first amendment requirement of the separation of church and state. If I were a Christian I would be insulted that they turned a very serious religious holiday into a secular, state holiday. As a Jew, I believe it makes me an "other," not really belonging to Hawaii because I don’t observe it. As you are well aware, there are many, many non-Christians in Hawaii. Hawaii prides itself on its diversity. Having Good Friday as a state holiday makes a mockery of that.

So if this measure passes, I would ask that you please put the holiday in October and repeal Good Friday as a state holiday. Thank you for this opportunity to testify.
