STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO SENATE BILL NO. 1063

Honorable Members
Twenty-Fourth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 1063, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Legislative Vacancies."

The purpose of this bill is to require the Governor, in filling vacancies in the State Legislature and United States Senate, to select from a list of three names submitted by the political party of the former incumbent. Prospective appointees must have been members of the incumbent's party for at least six months prior to appointment, and incumbents who were not members of any political party could only be replaced by other non-party members.

The goal of the present law is to fill vacancies in the State Legislature and the United States Senate in a timely manner when such vacancies occur. These vacancies in elective office are appropriately filled by the Governor, who is elected by the public at large, and, as such, is accountable to the public. The process for filling vacancies in the United States Senate and the Hawaii State Legislature has been in place since 1970 and has not been shown to have compromised the integrity of the election process.

This bill places the ability for determining who may be appointed by the Governor with the political party leadership of the vacating office holder. This is in spite of the fact that these individuals are not elected by the public and, as such, are not accountable to them.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS
SENATE BILL NO. 1063

Additionally, the bill, without any stated rationale, narrows the field of qualified candidates that the political party can consider to those who have been registered members of that party for at least six months prior to the appointment. Such a provision fails to recognize that this may unreasonably restrict the pool of potential candidates as the majority of people who personally and philosophically associate themselves with a political party and vote along party lines may not meet this requirement.

The Governor's ability and responsibility to select the most qualified person to fill a vacancy should not be so narrowly restricted.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 1063 without my approval.

Respectfully,

LINDA LINGLE
Governor of Hawaii

VETO

THE SENATE
TWENTY-FOURTH LEGISLATURE, 2007
STATE OF HAWAII

S.B. NO. 1063
H.D. 1

A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO LEGISLATIVE VACANCIES.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. The legislature finds that the current method
2 of filling vacancies in the state legislature and the United 3 States Senate may result in an appointment that compromises the 4 integrity of the election process or that provides ineffective
5 representation of the district's interests. Currently, the 6 governor appoints an individual to fill an unexpired legislative 7 vacancy, subject only to age and residency requirements for the 8 appointee, and membership of the appointee, at the time of 9 appointment, in the political party of the prior incumbent.

10 To guarantee fairness in filling legislative vacancies, the 11 appointment process must:

- 12 (1) Be free of political gamesmanship or controversy;
13 (2) Ensure the integrity of the legislative process; and 14 (3) Provide for effective representation for the residents
15 of the legislative district of the prior incumbent.

16 It is understandable that a governor may reasonably want to 17 appoint an individual whose views on key issues are "in

1 alignment with" the governor's positions, presumably a more
2 difficult task when the prior incumbent was a member of a 3 different political party than the governor. However, the 4 present appointment process allows the governor to essentially
5 disregard the interests of the prior incumbent's constituents
6 and appoint an individual whose primary qualification seems to 7 be sharing similar political opinions on key issues with the 8 governor. An appointment based solely upon political 9 considerations is viewed with skepticism, may seriously damage
10 the public's trust and confidence in the legislative process, 11 and casts an "aura of mistrust" around the appointee. The 12 appointee becomes an ineffective advocate for constituent 13 interests and is likely to be unproductive in the legislature.
14 Skepticism and mistrust are even stronger when a governor is 15 offered and rejects a list of potential appointees deemed 16 qualified by the political party of the prior incumbent.

17 The legislature further finds that the current method of 18 filling legislative vacancies must be amended to preserve the 19 integrity of the election process and to assure the public in 20 general and residents of the prior incumbent's district in 21 particular that appointments to fill legislative vacancies are 22 not based upon political considerations or self-interest.

1 Because state law requires the appointee to be from the same
2 party as the prior legislator, it is reasonable and logical to 3 direct the appropriate political party to submit to the governor
4 a list of individuals whom the appropriate political party deems
5 qualified to fill the vacancy and require the governor to choose
6 the appointee from the list. The political party of the prior 7 incumbent has a responsibility to the residents of the district 8 to provide the governor with a list of qualified candidates who 9 will be effective in serving the district.

10 In addition, the legislature finds that requiring the 11 governor to make a timely choice from the list submitted by the 12 appropriate political party would eliminate unnecessary delay in 13 filling the vacancy and would ensure that residents of the prior 14 incumbent's district are not without representation during 15 critical legislative proceedings.

16 The legislature believes that requiring the political party 17 of the prior incumbent to provide the governor with a list of 18 qualified nominees from which to choose would not unreasonably
19 restrict the pool of qualified candidates for the vacancy.
20 Rather, such a process would eliminate skepticism and mistrust
21 and increase public trust and confidence in the appurtenant
22 process.

1 The purpose of this Act is to establish a process to fill
2 legislative vacancies that is fair and timely and ensures that 3 the legislative district of the prior incumbent is represented
4 by an individual who is qualified to serve the interests of that 5 district. Specifically, this Act requires the political party 6 of a prior incumbent to submit to the governor a list of 7 qualified candidates from which the governor is required to 8 choose an appointee to fill the unexpired term of a legislative 9 vacancy.

10 SECTION 2. Section 17-1, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 11 amended to read as follows:

12 "§17-1 United States senator. When a vacancy occurs in 13 the office of United States senator, the vacancy shall be filled 14 for the unexpired term at the following state general 15 election~~[7]~~; provided that the vacancy occurs not later than

19 election officer shall issue a proclamation designating the 20 election for filling the vacancy. Pending the election, the 7 party as the [senator causing the vacancy.] prior incumbent.

8 The appointee shall be a resident of the state. If the prior 9 incumbent was not a member of any political party, the governor
10 shall appoint a person who is not and has not been, for at least

14 SECTION 3. Section 17-3, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is

22 end at the next succeeding general election:
