HOUSE RESOLUTION

RECOMMENDING THAT REALTORS PROMOTE THE PRINCIPLES OF UNIVERSAL DESIGN.

1           WHEREAS, "universal design" is defined as the design of 2 products and environments to be usable by all people, to the 3 greatest extent possible, without the need for adaptation or 4 specialized design; and

5

6           WHEREAS, universal design involves designing products 7 considering various factors, including but not limited to,
8 aesthetics, engineering options, environmental issues, industry
9 standards, safety concerns, and cost; and 10

11           WHEREAS, the principles of universal design were developed
12 in 1997 at the Center for Universal Design at North Carolina
13 State University by a group that included architects, product 14 designers, engineers, and environmental design researchers; and

15

16           WHEREAS, the principles of universal design are: (1)
17 equitable use, (2) flexibility in use, (3) simple and intuitive,
18 (4) perceptible information, (5) tolerance for error, (6) low
19 physical effort, and (7) size and space for approach and use; 20 and

21

22           WHEREAS, in the field of real estate, universal design
23 includes the incorporation of such features as no step entries,
24 one-story living, wide doorways, wide hallways, and extra floor 25 space; and

26

27           WHEREAS, the legislature finds that the principles of 28 universal design should be promoted within the field of real 29 estate marketing; now, therefore,

30

31           BE IT RESOLVED by the House of Representatives of the 32 Twenty-fourth Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular 33 Session of 2008, that the National Association of Home Builders 34 is encouraged and requested to promote the marketing of 35 properties which incorporate the principles of universal design 36 into their design; and
