
HOUSE RESOLUTION

REQUESTING THE COUNTIES TO ACKNOWLEDGE THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN URBAN DESIGN AND THE MENTAL AND PHYSICAL WELL-BRING OF PEOPLE AND FOR THE COUNTIES TO INCORPORATE THIS KNOWLEDGE INTO PERMIT AND DESIGN DECISIONS.

1 WHEREAS, good urban design is a creative process which,
2 when applied to towns and cities, results in the development of 3 great urban places: buildings, streets, squares and parks; and 4

5 WHEREAS, urban design is inextricably linked to its site
6 and locality, responding to the landscape, existing built form, 7 culture and attitudes; and 8

9 WHEREAS, urban design should provide sustainable, positive
10 and peaceful living environments, both in private and public 11 areas; and
12

13 WHEREAS, well-planned urban design serves the public 14 interest and includes appropriate innovation to respond to 15 technical, social, aesthetic, economic and environmental 16 challenges; and 17

18 WHEREAS, research into criminal behavior shows that the 19 decision to offend or not to offend is more influenced by cues
20 to the perceived risk of being caught than by cues to reward or 21 erase of entry, good urban design is based on enhancing the 22 perceived risk of detection and apprehension; and 23

24 WHEREAS, the Hawaii State Legislature recognizes the need 25 to efficiently process applications for new development, while 26 placing a high priority on quality design; now, therefore,
27
