
HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

URGING THE HAWAII PUBLIC HOUSING AUTHORITY TO PROVIDE FAIR AND EQUAL ACCESS TO PUBLIC HOUSING BY REMOVING PREFERENCES IN THE APPLICATION PROCESS.

1 WHEREAS, in these recessionary times, there is less
2 revenues and resources to provide a safety net for those in need 3 of state assistance to survive; and 4

5 WHEREAS, with the down turn in the economy, many residents
6 are losing their jobs and can no longer afford to pay their rent
7 or mortgage and are in greater need for public supported 8 housing; and
9

10 WHEREAS, the waiting list for public housing consist of 11 14,000 families and it is taking up to six years to get into 12 public housing that could be the result of the use of these 13 preferences; and 14

15 WHEREAS, people are getting smarter by getting themselves
16 registered as "homeless" to bypass the long waiting list for 17 public housing jumping in front of those who have been patiently 18 waiting for years; and 19

20 WHEREAS, the inclusion of certain preferences is creating a 21 loophole for some to jump to the head of the line; and 22

23 WHEREAS, native Hawaiians and other Hawaii residents who 24 may have some friends and family here and living in a house with 25 several families for many years may NOT be classified as 26 homeless; and
27

28 WHEREAS, a newcomer can jump off a plane and then go 29 directly to a homeless shelter for a week to be classified as 30 "homeless" and can jump to the head of the public housing 31 waiting list; and

WHEREAS, in theory, some preference may sound like a good idea, they are instead counterproductive and producing unintended negative outcomes instead; and

WHEREAS, in certain cultures, women are expected to be subjected to domestic violence and their men have an incentive to dump them off at homeless shelters with black and blue bruises in order to bolster their chances of getting public housing quickly;

WHEREAS, the 2006 audit, the Hawaii Public Housing Authority has been rated as a "troubled performance;" and

WHEREAS, in the 2006 audit recommended that the Hawaii Public Housing Authority should admit tenants who are working poor who could pay the rent and refrain from accepting tenants who have criminal records and bad rental payment histories; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED by the House of Representatives of the Twenty-fifth Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 2009, the Senate concurring, that the Hawaii Public Housing Authority provide fair and equal access to public housing by removing preferences in the application process; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that certified copies of this Concurrent Resolution be transmitted to the Governor and Hawaii Public Housing Authority.
