SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

ACKNOWLEDGING THE UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII AT MANOA COLLEGE OF
TROPICAL AGRICULTURE AND HUMAN RESOURCES HISTORIC COSTUME
COLLECTION AS A STATE TREASURE OF NATIONAL IMPORTANCE AND ENCOURAGING THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A MUSEUM FOR ITS PRESERVATION

1 WHEREAS, the University of Hawaii at Manoa College of
2 Tropical Agriculture and Human Resources Historic Costume
3 Collection is a world class, hidden treasure; and 4

5 WHEREAS, the Historic Costume Collection contains 6 approximately sixteen thousand items of well-documented
7 Hawaiian, Pacific Islander, Pacific Rim, Asian, and Western 8 costumes, textiles, accessories, and dolls that preserve the 9 historic legacy of these cultures through clothing and apparel
10 artifacts; and
11

12 WHEREAS, expert Dr. Linda Arthur, Professor and Curator at 13 Washington State University, examined the College of Tropical 14 Agriculture and Human Resources' Historic Costume Collection and 15 stated that it is one of the most significant collections in an 16 American university because it is the largest collection of 17 Asian, ethnic, and Hawaiian textiles and garments, dating as far 18 back as the early 1800s; and 19

20 WHEREAS, many items in the collection are worth thousands 21 of dollars and are unique, rare, and irreplaceable; and 22

23 WHEREAS, donations of these precious items are made to the 24 University of Hawaii with the understanding that the gifts will 25 be preserved and protected for as long as possible; and 26

27 WHEREAS, although this large and valuable collection should 28 be shared with the academic world and the general public, its 29 integrity and prominence are severely limited by the absence of 30 three important factors: a permanent and secure museum display

1 space; a full-time curator to manage the collection; and a
2 sufficient financial base to support its legacy for future
3 generations; and
4

5 WHEREAS, because of the University of Hawaii's inability to 6 offer a permanent display area, the collection lost a
7 significant part of Hawaii's plantation history when valuable
8 costumes that documented that era were donated to the Japanese 9 American National Museum in Los Angeles in 1993; and 10

11 WHEREAS, the designation of a curator, whose primary job is 12 to manage the costume collection, is critical for the proper 13 oversight and preservation of the collection; and 14

15 WHEREAS, this priceless collection also needs proper 16 organization and identification to preserve and connect the 17 historical documentary record with the corresponding garments;
18 and

20 WHEREAS, the storage of the garments poses a high risk of 21 damage caused by inadequate storage space, the use of lining
22 paper with acid content and wire hangers instead of padded
23 plastic hangers, lack of archival storage boxes and adequate 24 shelving, and improper handling of materials; and 25

26 WHEREAS, the absence of a museum presents security
27 problems, with too many people entering the collection's storage 28 room, thereby posing the risk of disorganization, theft, and 29 lack of control in tracking items; and 30

31 WHEREAS, insects have damaged some of the textiles and the 32 extent of that damage is not known; and 33

34 WHEREAS, the absence of a proper display and lack of 35 storage space poses environmental threats to the collection;
36 now, therefore,
37

38 BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate of the Twenty-fifth 39 Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 2009, the 40 House of Representatives concurring, that the Legislature
41 acknowledges the University of Hawaii at Manoa College of 42 Tropical Agriculture and Human Resources Historic Costume
43 Collection as a world class collection of historic and national 44 quality, integrity, and significance; and

 2 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislature encourages the 3 University of Hawaii to find and secure a permanent home to 4 properly manage, display, preserve, and promote this cultural 5 and academic treasure; and

6
 7 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that certified copies of this 8 Concurrent Resolution be transmitted to the Chairperson of the 9 Board of Regents and the President of the University of Hawaii.
