WHEREAS, the Child Support Enforcement Program (Program) of the federal Office of Child Support Enforcement is a partnership across all levels of government designed to help families by promoting family self-sufficiency and child well-being; and

WHEREAS, in Hawaii, the state agency that manages the Program is the Child Support Enforcement Agency (CSEA) within the Department of the Attorney General; and

WHEREAS, CSEA has a staff of enforcement officers, investigators, accountants, attorneys, paralegals, and other personnel who help establish and enforce orders to collect child support; and

WHEREAS, CSEA, on a case-by-case basis, offers the following services:

(1) Locating an absent parent;
(2) Establishing paternity;
(3) Establishing, modifying, and terminating child-support obligations;
(4) Collecting and disbursing child-support obligations; and
(5) Enforcing delinquent child-support obligations;

and

WHEREAS, according to an article dated April 10, 2005, in The Honolulu Advertiser, CSEA handles more than 111,000 active collection accounts involving more than $104,000,000 annually, and the caseload for CSEA caseworkers averages 520 each, far higher than the national average of 350 cases each; and

WHEREAS, despite some improvements in the last decade, there have been persistent complaints about the inefficient operation of CSEA; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED by the House of Representatives of the Twenty-fifth Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 2010, that the Auditor is requested to perform a financial and management audit of CSEA; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Attorney General and the Administrator of CSEA are requested to cooperate fully with the Auditor in the conduct of the financial and management audit; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Auditor is requested to submit the results of the financial and management audit, including any necessary proposed legislation, to the Legislature no later than 20 days prior to the convening of the Regular Session of 2011; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that certified copies of this Resolution be transmitted to the Auditor, Attorney General, and Administrator of CSEA.
