
A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO GOVERNMENT.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. The legislature finds that federal legislation,
2 referred to as the "Native Hawaiian Government Reorganization 3 Act" has been considered by the United States Congress since 4 2000, and remains under consideration. As Congress continues 5 its deliberations on this critical measure, it is the intent of 6 the legislature to address the State's response by:

- 7 (1) Expressing the policy of the State of Hawaii regarding 8 its relationship with Native Hawaiians; and 9 (2) Providing a process for the reorganization of a first 10 nation government by Native Hawaiians and its 11 subsequent recognition by the State of Hawaii.

12 SECTION 2. The Hawaii Revised Statutes is amended by 13 adding a new chapter to be appropriately designated and to read 14 as follows:

15 "CHAPTER

16 FIRST NATION GOVERNMENT

17 § -1 Findings. The legislature finds that:

- 1 (1) Native Hawaiians, the native people of the Hawaiian 2 archipelago that is now part of the United States and 3 the State of Hawaii, are the indigenous, native
4 peoples of the State of Hawaii, and the Native
5 Hawaiian people are a distinctly native community;
- 6 (2) The State of Hawaii has a special political and legal 7 relationship with, and has long enacted legislation to 8 promote the welfare of, the Native Hawaiian people;
- 9 (3) The United States, through Congress, exercised its 10 constitutional authority to confirm a treaty between 11 the United States and the government that represented 12 the Native Hawaiian people, and from 1826 until 1893, 13 the United States recognized the independence of the 14 Kingdom of Hawaii, extended full diplomatic 15 recognition to the Hawaiian government, and entered 16 into agreements with the Hawaiian monarchs to govern 17 commerce and navigation in 1826, 1842, 1849, 1875, and 18 1887;
- 19 (4) Pursuant to the Hawaiian Homes Commission Act, 1920
20 (42 Stat. 108, chapter 42), the United States set 21 aside approximately 203,500 acres of land in trust to 22 better address the conditions of Native Hawaiians in

1 the federal territory that later became the State of 2 Hawaii, and in enacting the Hawaiian Homes Commission
3 Act, 1920, Congress acknowledged the Native Hawaiian 4 people as a native people of the United States, as 5 evidenced by the committee report, which notes that 6 Congress relied on the Indian affairs power and the 7 War Powers, including the power to make peace;

8 (5) By setting aside 203,500 acres of land in trust for 9 Native Hawaiian homesteads and farms, the Hawaiian 10 Homes Commission Act, 1920, assists the members of the 11 Native Hawaiian community in maintaining distinctly 12 native communities throughout the State of Hawaii;

13 (6) Approximately 9,800 Native Hawaiian families reside on 14 the Hawaiian home lands, and approximately 25,000 15 Native Hawaiians who are eligible to reside on the 16 Hawaiian home lands are on a waiting list to receive 17 assignments of Hawaiian home lands;

18 (7) In 1959, as part of the compact with the United States
19 admitting Hawaii into the Union, Congress delegated 20 the authority and responsibility to administer the 21 Hawaiian Homes Commission Act, 1920, lands in trust
22 for Native Hawaiians and established a new public land

1 trust, commonly known as the ceded lands trust, for 2 five purposes, one of which is the betterment of the 3 conditions of Native Hawaiians, and Congress thereby 4 reaffirmed its recognition of the Native Hawaiians as 5 a distinctly native community with a direct lineal and 6 historical succession to the aboriginal, indigenous 7 people of Hawaii. The public trust consists of lands, 8 including submerged lands, natural resources, and the 9 revenues derived from the lands; and the assets of 10 this public trust have never been completely 11 inventoried or segregated;

12 (8) Native Hawaiians have continuously sought access to 13 the ceded lands in order to establish and maintain 14 native settlements and distinct native communities
15 throughout the State;

16 (9) The Hawaiian home lands and other ceded lands provide 17 important native land reserves and resources for the 18 Native Hawaiian community to maintain the practice of 19 Native Hawaiian culture, language, and traditions, and 20 for the continuity, survival, and economic self-
21 sufficiency of the Native Hawaiian people as a 22 distinctly native political community;

- 1 (10) Native Hawaiians continue to maintain other distinctly 2 native areas in Hawaii, including native lands that 3 date back to the ali'i and kuleana lands reserved under 4 the Kingdom of Hawaii;
- 5 (11) Through the Sovereign Councils of Hawaiian Homelands
6 Assembly and Native Hawaiian homestead associations,
7 Native Hawaiian civic associations, charitable trusts
8 established by the Native Hawaiian ali'i, nonprofit
9 native service providers, and other community
10 associations, the Native Hawaiian people have actively 11 maintained native traditions and customary usages 12 throughout the Native Hawaiian community, and the 13 federal and state courts have continuously recognized 14 the right of the Native Hawaiian people to engage in 15 certain customary practices and usages on public 16 lands;
- 17 (12) In 1978, the State of Hawaii held a constitutional 18 convention at which the office of Hawaiian affairs was 19 established, approved by the voters on November 7, 20 1978, (article XII, sections 5 and 6, Hawaii State 21 Constitution), and codified as chapter 10;

1 (13) At the 1978 constitutional convention, the State of 2 Hawaii also found that many Native Hawaiian values and 3 rights should be included in the Hawaii State 4 Constitution, and the election of November 1978 also 5 established state affirmation and protection of "all 6 rights, customarily and traditionally exercised for 7 subsistence, cultural and religious purposes and 8 possessed by ahupua'a tenants who are descendants of 9 native Hawaiians who inhabited the Hawaiian Islands 10 prior to 1778, subject to the right of the State to 11 regulate such rights." (Article XII, section 7, 12 Hawaii State Constitution);

13 (14) The creation of the office of Hawaiian affairs and the 14 expression of Native Hawaiian rights in the Hawaii 15 State Constitution reflect the acknowledgment of the 16 1978 Constitutional Convention and the people of 17 Hawaii that assets and rights for Native Hawaiians 18 were long overdue;

19 (15) On November 23, 1993, Public Law 103-150 (107 Stat.
20 1510), commonly known as the "Apology Resolution", was 21 enacted into law by the United States Congress, 22 extending an apology to Native Hawaiians on behalf of

1 the people of the United States for the United States'
2 role in the overthrow of the Kingdom of Hawaii;
3 (16) The Apology Resolution acknowledges that the overthrow 4 of the Kingdom of Hawaii occurred with the active 5 participation of agents and citizens of the United 6 States, and further acknowledges that the Native 7 Hawaiian people never directly relinquished to the 8 United States their claims to their inherent 9 sovereignty as a people over their national lands,
10 either through the Kingdom of Hawaii or through a 11 plebiscite or referendum;
12 (17) The Apology Resolution expresses the commitment of 13 Congress and the President to acknowledge the 14 ramifications of the overthrow of the Kingdom of 15 Hawaii and to support reconciliation efforts between 16 the United States and Native Hawaiians; and to have 17 Congress and the President, through the President's 18 designated officials, consult with Native Hawaiians on 19 the reconciliation process as called for under the 20 Apology Resolution;
21 (18) Pursuant to the Apology Resolution, the United States
22 Departments of Justice and the Interior conducted

1 reconciliation hearings with the Native Hawaiian 2 people in 1999 and issued a joint report entitled,
3 "From Mauka to Makai: The River of Justice Must Flow
4 Freely", which identified promoting the reorganization
5 of a Native Hawaiian government as a priority 6 recommendation for continuing the process of 7 reconciliation;

8 (19) Despite the overthrow of the government of the Kingdom
9 of Hawaii, Native Hawaiians have continued to maintain 10 their separate identity as a single distinctly native 11 political community through cultural, social, and 12 political institutions, and to give expression to 13 their rights as native people to self-determination, 14 self-governance, and economic self-sufficiency;

15 (20) There is clear continuity between the aboriginal, 16 indigenous, native people of the Kingdom of Hawaii and 17 their successors, the Native Hawaiian people today;

18 (21) Native Hawaiians have also given expression to their 19 rights as native people to self-determination, self-20 governance, and economic self-sufficiency through the 21 provision of governmental services to Native
22 Hawaiians, including the provision of health care

1 services, educational programs, employment and 2 training programs, economic development assistance
3 programs, children's services, conservation programs, 4 fish and wildlife protection, agricultural programs,
5 native language immersion programs, native language
6 immersion schools from kindergarten through high
7 school, college and master's degree programs in native 8 language immersion instruction, and traditional 9 justice programs; and by continuing their efforts to 10 enhance Native Hawaiian self-determination and local 11 control;

12 (22) Native Hawaiian people are actively engaged in Native 13 Hawaiian cultural practices, traditional agricultural 14 methods, fishing and subsistence practices,
15 maintenance of cultural use areas and sacred sites, 16 protection of burial sites, and the exercise of their 17 traditional rights to gather medicinal plants and 18 herbs, and food sources;

19 (23) The Native Hawaiian people wish to preserve, develop,
20 and transmit to future generations of Native Hawaiians 21 their lands and Native Hawaiian political and cultural 22 identity in accordance with their traditions, beliefs,

1 customs and practices, language, and social and 2 political institutions; to control and manage their 3 own lands, including ceded lands; and to achieve 4 greater self-determination over their own affairs;

5 (24) This chapter provides a process for the Native
6 Hawaiian people to exercise their inherent rights as a 7 distinct, indigenous, native community to reorganize a 8 first nation government for the purpose of giving 9 expression to their rights as a native people to self-10 determination and self-governance;

11 (25) The United States has:

12 (A) Declared that the United States has a special 13 political and legal relationship for the welfare
14 of the native peoples of the United States,
15 including Native Hawaiians;

16 (B) Identified Native Hawaiians as an indigenous,
17 distinctly native people of the United States 18 within the scope of its authority under the 19 Constitution of the United States of America, and 20 has enacted scores of statutes on their behalf; 21 and

1 (C) Delegated broad authority to the State of Hawaii
2 to administer some of the United States'
3 responsibilities as they relate to the Native
4 Hawaiian people and their lands;

5 (26) The United States has recognized and reaffirmed the 6 special political and legal relationship with the 7 Native Hawaiian people through the enactment of the 8 Act entitled, "An Act to provide for the admission of 9 the State of Hawaii into the Union", approved 10 March 18, 1959 (Public Law 86-3; 73 Stat. 4), by:

11 (A) Ceding to the State of Hawaii title to the public 12 lands formerly held by the United States, and 13 mandating that those lands be held as a public 14 trust for five purposes, one of which is for the 15 betterment of the conditions of Native Hawaiians;
16 and

17 (B) Transferring the United States' responsibility
18 for the administration of the Hawaiian home lands 19 to the State of Hawaii, but retaining the 20 exclusive right of the United States to consent 21 to any actions affecting the lands included in 22 the trust and any amendments to the Hawaiian

1 Homes Commission Act, 1920 (42 Stat. 108, chapter 2 42), that are enacted by the legislature of the 3 State of Hawaii affecting the beneficiaries under 4 the Act; and

5 (27) The United States has continually recognized and 6 reaffirmed that:

7 (A) Native Hawaiians have a direct genealogical, 8 cultural, historic, and land-based connection to 9 their forebears, the aboriginal, indigenous,
10 native people who exercised original sovereignty
11 over the Hawaiian Islands;

12 (B) Native Hawaiians have never relinquished their 13 claims to sovereignty or their sovereign lands;

14 (C) The United States extends services to Native 15 Hawaiians because of their unique status as the 16 native people of a prior-sovereign nation with 17 whom the United States has a special political 18 and legal relationship; and

19 (D) The special relationship of American Indians, 20 Alaska Natives, and Native Hawaiians to the 21 United States arises out of their status as

1 aboriginal, indigenous, native people of the 2 United States.

22 the council.

1 (1) The publication of the initial and updated roll shall 2 serve as the basis for the eligibility of qualified Native 3 Hawaiian constituents whose names are listed on those rolls to 4 participate in the reorganization of the Native Hawaiian 5 governing entity.

6 § -6 Process of reorganization and ratification of
