
A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO HAWAII HEALTH CORPS.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. The legislature finds that many residents of 2 Hawaii are increasingly unable to obtain timely and appropriate
3 health care due to shortages of primary health care providers in 4 the State, including physicians, physician assistants, and nurse
5 practitioners. These shortages threaten the health of Hawaii's
6 residents and affect state health care costs. These shortages
7 have pushed the federal government to designate a number of 8 areas in the State, particularly rural areas, as medically 9 underserved areas, health professional shortage areas, or as 10 having medically underserved populations.

11 The legislature further finds that counties in the United 12 States with robust primary health care systems have lower costs
13 and improved patient outcomes. Recognizing this relationship, 14 many states have implemented budget line item support for the 15 primary care pipeline.

16 Family physicians and nurse practitioners are well suited
17 to rural practice due to their broad scope of clinical skills
18 across the life cycle, encompassing the inpatient, outpatient,

1 nursing home, and home setting. In addition to providing acute,
2 chronic, and preventive care, many family physicians and nurse
3 practitioners provide maternity care, family planning, and 4 mental health services. With this scope of practice, family
5 physicians and nurse practitioners are well equipped to work in 6 teams with other health professionals to develop fully 7 functioning patient-centered medical homes.

8 The University of Hawaii John A. Burns school of medicine,
9 in association with Wahiawa general hospital, conducts a fully 10 accredited three-year family medicine residency program. This 11 program has contributed over sixty family physicians who 12 currently work throughout the State of Hawaii.

13 Since 2006, a second rural residency program model has been 14 under development with the John A. Burns school of medicine and 15 the Hilo medical center. This will be the first residency 16 program established on a neighbor island. In addition to 17 training for medical students and resident physicians, this 18 model rural interdisciplinary training site will include
19 advanced practice nursing, pharmacy, psychiatry, and other areas
20 of practice. It is anticipated that this rural primary care
21 training model can be replicated on other islands.

1 The legislature further finds that the increasingly high
2 cost of a physician's and nurse practitioner's professional 3 education requires physicians and nurse practitioners to seek 4 out the higher incomes that allow them to repay their student
5 loans. However, physician and nurse practitioner salaries in 6 rural shortage areas are often lower than those in non-shortage
7 areas.

8 Loan repayment programs have been successfully used in 9 Hawaii to increase the number of educators serving in hard-to-10 fill teaching positions and can also be used to encourage and 11 enable physicians, physician assistants, and nurse practitioners
12 to provide care in shortage areas of the State.

13 The purpose of this Act is to:

14 (1) Establish the Hawaii health corps, under the 15 University of Hawaii John A. Burns school of medicine,
16 to provide loan repayment for physicians, physician
17 assistants, and nurse practitioners who agree to work
18 in a county having a shortage of physicians, physician
19 assistants, and nurse practitioners, with priority
20 given to a rural area of that particular county; and

21 (2) Appropriate funds to increase access by medically
22 underserved resident populations to culturally

1 appropriate primary health care services by supporting 2 the development of the rural health workforce as 3 follows:

4 (A) For the Hilo medical center, by implementing and 5 sustaining the rural interdisciplinary residency
6 program; and

7 (B) For the John A. Burns school of medicine and the 8 University of Hawaii at Manoa school of nursing 9 and dental hygiene for:

10 (i) Its continued participation as the 11 Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical 12 Education-sponsoring institution;

13 (ii) Required faculty leadership in
14 accreditation, implementation, and graduate
15 medical education oversight;

16 (iii) An increased number of family medicine
17 residency slots, establishment of rotations
18 on other islands including Maui, Molokai,
19 and Kauai; and

20 (iv) A yearly incentive stipend for each resident
21 in a family practice medical and nursing
22 residency at the Hilo medical center.

1 SECTION 2. The Hawaii Revised Statutes is amended by 2 adding a new chapter to be appropriately designated and to read
3 as follows:
