A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO COMMUNICATIONS TECHNOLOGY.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1           SECTION 1. The legislature finds that "fiber to the home"
2 is a relatively new and quickly growing method of providing 3 vastly higher bandwidth to consumers and businesses that enables 4 more robust internet, voice, and video services. Connecting 5 homes directly to fiber optic cable provides significant 6 improvements in the bandwidth that can be supplied to consumers,
7 with current fiber optic technology capable of two-way
8 transmission speeds of up to one hundred megabits per second.
9 As cable modem and digital subscriber line providers are 10 challenged to provide higher bandwidth, improvements in fiber
11 optic equipment offer constantly increasing available bandwidth
12 without having to change the fiber.

13           In its final report, the Hawaii broadband task force's 14 first recommendation was to establish a forward-looking vision
15 to make Hawaii globally competitive. The task force recommended
16 legislation that would enshrine in statute this vision to guide
17 policy and action in recognizing broadband as critical
18 infrastructure for the twenty-first century. The task force

1 encouraged the public and private sectors to strive together to 2 enable every home and business in the State to access one
3 hundred megabits per second upstream and downstream broadband 4 service at prices comparable to those in leading economies of 5 the world by 2012, with expandability to one thousand megabits
6 per second thereafter, ensuring that every home and business
7 will be capable of using this capability for educational,
8 economic, social, cultural, and medical advancement.

9       The purpose of this Act is to promote enhanced 10 communication infrastructure for Hawaii residents by 11 incorporating recommendations of the Hawaii broadband task force
12 in the Hawaii state plan.

13       SECTION 2. Section 226-6, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is
