2 used by Native Hawaiians and foreigners alike; and 3

4 WHEREAS, by the late twentieth century, the Hawaiian
5 language was pushed to the brink of extinction due to a number 6 of factors, including an 1896 law that functioned to ban the 7 speaking of the Hawaiian language in Hawaii's schools; and 8

9 WHEREAS, the Hawaiian language was saved by several 10 historic initiatives, including the Department of Education's 11 Hawaiian language immersion program, which was launched in the 12 1980s; and

14 WHEREAS, today, the Hawaiian language immersion program is 15 offered at twenty-one public schools and educates more than two 16 thousand students in kindergarten through the twelfth grade; and 17

18 WHEREAS, the assessments required by the No Child Left
19 Behind Act of 2001 (No Child Left Behind) present a challenge
20 for the Hawaiian immersion program; and 21

22 WHEREAS, because English is not formally introduced in the 23 Hawaiian immersion program classrooms until the fifth grade,
24 third and fourth graders take assessments in the Hawaiian
25 language to comply with the requirements of No Child Left 26 Behind; and 27

1 WHEREAS, the Department of Education must provide the 2 students with an assessment system that more accurately measures 3 their academic achievement; and 4

5 WHEREAS, this body is aware that the Board of Education is 6 currently reviewing issues regarding assessments as part of its 7 development of a comprehensive Hawaiian studies program within 8 Hawaii's public school system; and 9

10 WHEREAS, this body is also aware that efforts are underway
11 to develop a request for a federal waiver from certain 12 requirements of No Child Left Behind to allow for the most 13 appropriate assessments and academic content standards for the 14 Hawaiian language immersion program; and 15

16 WHEREAS, the Hawaiian language has a unique importance to 17 the State and is recognized under article XV, section 4, of the 18 Hawaii State Constitution as an official language of the State; 19 and

21 WHEREAS, article X, section 4, of the Hawaii State
22 Constitution requires that the State promote the study of the 23 Hawaiian culture, history, and language and provide for a 24 Hawaiian education program consisting of language, culture, and 25 history in public schools; and 26

27 WHEREAS, the Native American Languages Act of 1990
28 recognizes that the traditional languages of Native Americans
29 are an integral part of their cultures and identifies and form 30 the basic medium for the transmission, and thus survival, of 31 Native American cultures, literatures, histories, religions, 32 political institutions, and values; and 33

34 WHEREAS, the Native American Languages Act of 1990 also 35 declares as a federal policy the encouragement and support for 36 the use of Native American languages as a medium of instruction; 37 now, therefore,
