JUSTIFICATION SHEET

DEPARTMENT: Land and Natural Resources

TITLE: A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE KAHOOLAWA ISLAND RESERVE.

PURPOSE: To clarify that any equipment, article, instrument, aircraft, vehicle, vessel, business record, or natural resource used or taken in violation of the rules applicable to the Kahoolawe Island Reserve may be seized and subject to forfeiture pursuant to section 199-7 and chapter 712A, Hawaii Revised Statutes (HRS).

MEANS: Add a new section to chapter 6K, HRS, and amend section 6K-6, HRS.

JUSTIFICATION: The Hawaii Supreme Court found, in Carlisle v. One (1) Boat, 119 Hawaii 245, 195 P.3d 1177 (2008), any associated enforcement of natural resource protection cannot include forfeiture of property used in furtherance of specified offenses unless forfeiture is specifically and clearly allowed in applicable statutes.

In 2008, the County of Maui Prosecuting Attorney started forfeiture proceedings for a helicopter that landed illegally on Kahoolawe with passengers. The Supreme Court decision for the Carlisle v. One (1) Boat was issued prior to the forfeiture hearing for the illegal landing of the helicopter, thus the helicopter had to be returned. In addition to the helicopter incident, the County of Maui's Department of the Prosecuting Attorney has reported they have been consistently receiving reports of illegal fishing and other activities on and around Kahoolawe.

The adoption of an in rem forfeiture provision within chapter 6K, HRS, for remedial sanctions by administrative or civil proceedings would serve as a deterrent, thus strengthening the Department's enforcement capabilities and allowing for greater protection of the Reserve's resources and members of the public who may be unaware of the dangers of unexploded ordnance on and around the Island.

Impact on the public: This bill would increase the available options to deter criminal activity within the Kahoolawe Island Reserve.

Impact on the department and other agencies: This bill would deter violations within the Kahoolawe Island Reserve which would eventually reduce the Department's expenses to provide enforcement of the Reserve.

GENERAL FUND: None.

OTHER FUNDS: None.

PPBS PROGRAM DESIGNATION: LNR 906.

OTHER AFFECTED AGENCIES: Department of the Attorney General.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Upon approval.
