
HOUSE RESOLUTION

COMMEMORATING THE THIRTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF HAWAII'S SISTER-STATE
RELATIONSHIP WITH THE GUANGDONG PROVINCE.

1 WHEREAS, the Department of Business, Economic Development
2 and Tourism and its Office of International Affairs establish 3 close working relationships with foreign governments to raise
4 Hawaii's profile internationally, attract dynamic cooperative
5 programs, and stimulate Hawaii's economy; and 6

7 WHEREAS, many of these relationships are sister-state
8 programs that establish a partnership for mutual economic 9 advantage and the potential for expanded cultural, educational,
10 and government exchanges; and 11

12 WHEREAS, the sister-state relationship between Hawaii and 13 China's Guangdong province was established in 1985, and these 14 formal ties to the province have helped lead to Hawaii's success
15 in developing an economic relationship with China; and 16

17 WHEREAS, Guangdong was Hawaii's first Chinese sister state
18 because many early immigrants from China came to Hawaii from 19 Guangdong, and over seventy-five per cent of people living in 20 Hawaii can trace their ancestral roots back to the Guangdong
21 province; and
22

23 WHEREAS, Dr. Sun Yat-sen, the first president of China,
24 studied at Iolani and Punahou schools and was born in Zhongshan
25 City in Guangdong; and 26

27 WHEREAS, through the sister-state relationship, the 28 Guangdong Province Senior Executive Leadership Training Program
29 was established at the University of Hawaii in 1999 by the 30 Department of Business, Economic Development, and Tourism and 31 the University of Hawaii College of Business Administration; and 32

H.R. NO. 28

1 WHEREAS, Hawaii and Guangdong maintain a mutually 2 beneficial, cooperative relationship furthered by a continuing 3 exchange of delegations to further the cultural and economic 4 exchange; and

5
 6 WHEREAS, former Governor Linda Lingle visited the Guangdong
 7 province to commemorate the twenty-fifth anniversary of the 8 sister-state relationship; and

9
 10 WHEREAS, former Governor Neil Abercrombie met with 11 Guangdong province Governor Zhu Xiaodan, who traveled to Hawaii
 12 to discuss plans to celebrate the thirtieth anniversary of the 13 sister-state relationship in September of 2014; now, therefore, 14

15 BE IT RESOLVED by the House of Representatives of the 16 Twenty-eighth Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular 17 Session of 2015, hereby commemorates the thirtieth anniversary
 18 of sister-state relationship between Hawaii and the Guangdong
 19 province; and

20
 21 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that certified copies of this 22 Resolution be transmitted to the United Chinese Society, See Dai
 23 Doo Society, Teo Chew Society, and the Governor of Guangdong
 24 province.
