A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO ESCROW DEPOSITORIES.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

SECTION 1. Section 449-1, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended by adding four new definitions to be appropriately inserted and to read as follows:

"Control", in the context of control of an applicant or licensee, means ownership of or the power to vote twenty-five per cent or more of the outstanding voting securities of a licensee or controlling person. For purposes of determining the percentage of a licensee controlled by any person, there shall be aggregated with the controlling person's interest the interest of any other person controlled by the person, or by any spouse, parent, or child of the person.

"Controlling person" means any person in control of a licensee or applicant.

"NMLS" means a licensing system developed and maintained by the Conference of State Bank Supervisors and the American Association of Residential Mortgage Regulators for the state licensing and registration of state-licensed loan originators.
and other financial services providers, or any system provided by the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau.
"Principal" means a manager and anyone else who supervises or is in charge of the applicant or licensee."

SECTION 2. Section 449-1.9, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended to read as follows:

"§449-1.9 [Powers of commissioner. In addition to any other powers provided by law, the commissioner may:

(1) Administer and enforce the provisions and requirements
of this chapter;

(2) Adopt, amend, or repeal rules or declaratory rulings pursuant to chapter 91 to effectuate the purposes of this chapter;

(3) Issue informal nonbinding interpretations to effectuate the purposes of this chapter;

(4) Investigate and conduct hearings regarding any violation of this chapter or any rule or order of the commissioner;

(5) Contract with or employ qualified persons, including investigators, examiners, or auditors who shall be exempt from chapter 76 and who shall assist the commissioner in exercising the commissioner’s powers
and duties;

(6) Deposit all fees, fines, and charges collected by the commissioner under this chapter into the compliance resolution fund established pursuant to section 26-9(o);

(7) Process and investigate complaints, subpoena witnesses
and documents, administer oaths, and receive affidavits and oral testimony, including through electronic means, and conduct contested case proceedings; [and]

(8) Report any violation of this chapter or violation of federal or state law to the United States Commissioner of Housing and Urban Development or any other federal agency having jurisdiction over the licensee[; and]

(9) Enter into agreements or contracts with the operators of NMLS or other entities designated by NMLS to collect and maintain records and process transaction fees or other fees related to licensees or other persons subject to this chapter.
(A) For the purpose and the extent necessary to use NMLS, the commissioner may:

(i) Require all escrow depositories to register with NMLS; and

(ii) Waive or modify, in whole or in part, by rule or order, any or all of the requirements of this chapter and establish new requirements as reasonably necessary to participate in NMLS; and

(B) In addition to other uses of NMLS, the commissioner may use NMLS as an agent for:

(i) Requesting information from and distributing information to the United States Department of Justice or any other governmental agency; and

(ii) Requesting and distributing information to and from any source directed by the commissioner."

SECTION 3. Section 449-6, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended to read as follows:
§449-6 Application for license. (a) Any corporation desiring to be licensed as an escrow depository shall submit an application in writing and in a form prescribed by NMLS or by the commissioner. The application shall be accompanied by a filing fee no part of which shall be refundable.

(b) The application shall contain the following information:

1. The corporate name, amount of capital, and office address of the applicant;
2. The names of the stockholders, officers, and directors of the applicant;
3. Evidence of the character, financial responsibility, experience, and ability of the officers and directors;
4. The names of the proposed escrow officers and their qualifications; and
5. The history of the applicant's material litigation and criminal convictions for the five-year period prior to the date of the application;
(6) Information and authorizations necessary to conduct a criminal history record check in accordance with section 846-2.7 of each of the applicant's controlling persons, and each of the officers, directors, and principals who will be in charge of the escrow depository's activities upon licensure, accompanied by the appropriate payment of the applicable fee for each record check; and

(7) Any other information the commissioner deems necessary to participate in NMLS."

SECTION 4. Section 449-8, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended to read as follows:

"§449-8 Issuance and renewal of license. After approval of the application, and payment of the license fee, the commissioner shall issue to the applicant a license to act as an escrow depository. The license shall be effective only upon the applicant's filing with the commissioner an escrow depository's bond and evidence that fidelity bonds and errors and omissions insurance, or cash or securities deposits permitted in lieu thereof, have been obtained, all as provided in sections 449-9, 449-11, and 449-12. The license shall be renewed annually, as of [July 17] December 31, upon payment of the annual renewal fee and the finding of the commissioner, from the information contained in the annual corporate exhibit of the licensee or investigation or hearing, that the licensee continues to meet the qualifications for licensing and has continued in force the bonds and insurance or the cash or securities deposits permitted in lieu thereof."

SECTION 5. Section 449-8.6, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended to read as follows:

"$449-8.6 Sale or transfer of license or change in control. (a) No escrow depository license shall be transferred except as provided in [subsection—(c)—] this section.

(b) A bona fide sale of all or substantially all of the ongoing operations of a licensee shall not result in the assignment or transfer of the escrow depository license[—] until approved by the commissioner as provided in this section. The proposed purchaser of all or substantially all of the ongoing operations of a licensee shall file an application for approval of a proposed change in control of the licensee, accompanied by a nonrefundable application fee in accordance with this chapter[—] and shall not act as an escrow depository [unless it] until the application has been [licensed] approved by the commissioner.

(c) [If the licensee is a corporation, any intended] Any transfer of [its] a licensee's voting stock which may result in the acquisition of control of the licensee may be considered a transfer of license[—Any intended transfer of the voting stock which may result in the acquisition of control] under this chapter, and prior to the transfer shall be reported to the commissioner in writing. Upon determination by the commissioner that the intended transfer will result in the acquisition of control, the proposed purchaser or transferee of the stock shall file an application for approval [to act as an escrow depository] of a proposed change in control of the licensee, accompanied by a nonrefundable application fee in accordance with this chapter, and shall not [acquire control of] act as an escrow depository until the [transferee] application has been approved by the commissioner.

(d) The fee for the transfer and change in control of an escrow depository license shall be $5,000.

(d) At the time of filing an application for approval of a proposed change in control of the licensee, the proposed purchaser or transferee shall provide to the commissioner the history of its material litigation and criminal convictions for the five-year period prior to the date of the application, and any other information requested by the commissioner which may include information similar to that required of an applicant for initial licensure or license renewal under this chapter. The proposed purchaser or transferee shall also provide any authorizations necessary for the commissioner to conduct criminal history record checks of each of the purchaser or transferee's controlling persons, and each of the officers, directors, and principals who will be in charge of the licensee's activities upon approval of the proposed application for change in control. The authorizations shall be accompanied by the appropriate payment of the applicable fee for each record check.

(e) Approval of the application for change in control of the licensee shall be granted only if the commissioner finds that following the change in control of the licensee, the character, financial responsibility, experience, ability, and general fitness of the controlling persons of the applicant for proposed change in control of the licensee, and each of the officers, directors, and principals who will be in charge of the licensee's activities upon approval of the proposed application for change in control, are such as to command the confidence of the community in the State and to warrant the beliefs that such persons are competent to successfully control and manage an escrow business and the applicant will be an honest and efficient escrow depository.

(f) In granting approval, the commissioner may impose such conditions and restrictions as shall be in the public interest, including without limitation requiring the proposed purchaser or transferee to fulfill representations contained in its application for approval of a proposed change in control of the licensee, and agreements made during the application process."

SECTION 6. Section 449-14, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended by amending subsection (a) to read as follows:

"(a) The following fees shall be paid by licensed escrow depositories to the commissioner and, together with any administrative penalty or other charge assessed under this chapter, shall be deposited into the compliance resolution fund established pursuant to section 26-9(o):
