
HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

DESIGNATING OCTOBER 13, 2017, AS METASTATIC BREAST CANCER
AWARENESS DAY.

1 WHEREAS, metastatic breast cancer has affected the lives of

3

4 WHEREAS, cancer is considered to be metastatic when it
5 spreads beyond its site of origin and affects other organs and 6 systems including the bones, lungs, liver, and brain; and 7

8 WHEREAS, while public awareness of and attention to early 9 detection and routine diagnosis of breast cancer has caused 10 tremendous progress in effective treatment and increased 11 survival rates over the past 30 years, no cure exists for 12 metastatic breast cancer and those affected by it must bear the 13 burden of continual treatment with the goal of preserving 14 quality of life for as long as possible; and 15

16 WHEREAS, approximately 1,140 women in Hawaii were diagnosed 17 with breast cancer in 2015; and 18

19 WHEREAS, approximately six percent of newly diagnosed cases 20 of breast cancer are metastatic at the time of diagnosis and 21 approximately 30 percent of cases will become metastatic or 22 recurrent; and 23

24 WHEREAS, although breast cancer occurs across all 25 socioeconomic groups, women of color experience higher rates of 26 mortality despite experiencing lower rates of occurrence than 27 white women; and 28

29 WHEREAS, while there have been advances in treatment for 30 metastatic breast cancer, their benefit has so far been 31 contained to only a small subset of specific cancer types

H.C.R. NO. 163

1 leaving the majority of patients and their families to bear the 2 enormous burden of treatment costs, family stress, and loss; and

3
4 WHEREAS, while metastatic breast cancer remains incurable,
5 there is reason to be hopeful as extensive research is underway
6 and support and resources are available to patients and their 7 families through medical providers, in the community, and 8 online; and

9
10 WHEREAS, more research is still needed, particularly on the 11 personal and social burdens of metastatic breast cancer, so that 12 new and more effective treatments may be developed; and

13
14 WHEREAS, the State will continue to support policies that 15 make diagnosis, treatment, and support resources accessible to 16 all Hawaii residents; now, therefore,

17
18 BE IT RESOLVED by the House of Representatives of the

20 of 2017, the Senate concurring, that October 13, 2017, is
