RELATING TO CONDOMINIUMS.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

SECTION 1. The legislature finds that secondhand smoke is a dangerous class A carcinogen, the same class as asbestos and benzene. Secondhand smoke typically contains at least seven thousand identifiable chemicals, around seventy of which are known or probable carcinogens. According to the federal Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, secondhand smoke can cause heart disease, lung cancer, and stroke. Further, the fiftieth anniversary United States Surgeon General Report, published in 2014, states that any level of exposure to secondhand smoke is dangerous and that since 1964, more than two and a half million nonsmokers have died from health problems caused by secondhand smoke.

The purpose of this Act is to clarify that condominium associations may adopt rules and regulations that:

(1) Require unit owners to prohibit smoking inside a condominium unit as part of any lease agreement; and
(2) Prohibit smoking on any lanai of a condominium unit and in all common elements.

SECTION 2. Section 514B-105, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended by amending subsection (b) to read as follows:

"(b) Unless otherwise permitted by the declaration, bylaws, or this chapter, an association may adopt rules and regulations that affect the use of or behavior in units that may be used for residential purposes only to:

(1) Prevent any use of a unit which violates the declaration or bylaws;

(2) Regulate any behavior in or occupancy of a unit which violates the declaration or bylaws or unreasonably interferes with the use and enjoyment of other units or the common elements by other unit owners;

including:

(A) Requiring unit owners to prohibit smoking inside the unit as part of any lease agreement; and

(B) Prohibiting smoking on any lanai and in all common elements; or

(3) Restrict the leasing of residential units to the extent those rules are reasonably designed to meet underwriting requirements of institutional lenders who regularly lend money secured by first mortgages on units in condominiums or regularly purchase those mortgages.

Otherwise, the association may not regulate any use of or behavior in units by means of the rules and regulations."

SECTION 3. Statutory material to be repealed is bracketed and stricken. New statutory material is underscored.

SECTION 4. This Act shall take effect upon its approval.
