
A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO TAX APPEALS.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. Section 26-10, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 2 amended by amending subsection (d) to read as follows:

3 "(d) There shall be within the department of taxation a 4 ~~[board of review for each taxation district]~~ tax appeal review 5 panel and a tax appeal court. The composition of ~~[each board of~~ 6 ~~review]~~ the tax appeal review panel and the tax appeal court and 7 its respective functions, duties, and powers shall be as 8 ~~[heretofore]~~ provided ~~[by law for the boards of review and tax~~
9 ~~appeal court existing immediately prior to November 25, 1959.]~~ 10 in chapter 232."

11 SECTION 2. Section 28-8.3, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 12 amended as follows:

13 1. By amending subsection (a) to read:

14 "(a) No department of the State other than the attorney 15 general may employ or retain any attorney, by contract or 16 otherwise, for the purpose of representing the State or the 17 department in any litigation, rendering legal counsel to the

1 department, or drafting legal documents for the department; 2 provided that the foregoing provision shall not apply to the 3 employment or retention of attorneys:

4 (1) By the public utilities commission, the labor and 5 industrial relations appeals board, and the Hawaii
6 labor relations board;

7 (2) By any court or judicial or legislative office of the 8 State; provided that if the attorney general is 9 requested to provide representation to a court or 10 judicial office by the chief justice or the chief 11 justice's designee, or to a legislative office by the 12 speaker of the house of representatives and the 13 president of the senate jointly, and the attorney 14 general declines to provide such representation on the 15 grounds of conflict of interest, the attorney general 16 shall retain an attorney for the court, judicial, or 17 legislative office, subject to approval by the court, 18 judicial, or legislative office;

19 (3) By the legislative reference bureau;

20 (4) By any compilation commission that may be constituted 21 from time to time;

- 1 (5) By the real estate commission for any action involving
- 2 the real estate recovery fund;
- 3 (6) By the contractors license board for any action
- 4 involving the contractors recovery fund;
- 5 (7) By the office of Hawaiian affairs;
- 6 (8) By the department of commerce and consumer affairs for
- 7 the enforcement of violations of chapters 480 and
- 8 485A;
- 9 (9) As grand jury counsel;
- 10 (10) By the Hawaii health systems corporation, or its
- 11 regional system boards, or any of their facilities;
- 12 (11) By the auditor;
- 13 (12) By the office of ombudsman;
- 14 (13) By the insurance division;
- 15 (14) By the University of Hawaii;
- 16 (15) By the Kahoolawe island reserve commission;
- 17 (16) By the division of consumer advocacy;
- 18 (17) By the office of elections;
- 19 (18) By the campaign spending commission;
- 20 (19) By the Hawaii tourism authority, as provided in
- 21 section 201B-2.5;

1 (20) By the division of financial institutions;
 2 (21) By the office of information practices; [~~or~~] 3 (22) By the tax appeal review panel; or 4 [~~(22)~~] (23) By a department, if the attorney general, for 5 reasons deemed by the attorney general to be good and 6 sufficient, declines to employ or retain an attorney 7 for a department; provided that the governor waives 8 the provision of this section."

9 2. By amending subsection (c) to read:

10 "(c) Every attorney employed by any department on a full-11 time basis, except an attorney employed by the public utilities 12 commission, the labor and industrial relations appeals board, 13 the Hawaii labor relations board, the office of Hawaiian 14 affairs, the Hawaii health systems corporation or its regional 15 system boards, the department of commerce and consumer affairs 16 in prosecution of consumer complaints, insurance division, the 17 division of consumer advocacy, the University of Hawaii, the 18 Hawaii tourism authority as provided in section 201B-2.5, the 19 office of information practices, the tax appeal review panel, or 20 as grand jury counsel, shall be a deputy attorney general."

1 SECTION 3. Section 231-7.5, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is
2 amended by amending subsection (b) to read as follows:

3 "(b) Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, 4 including tax appeal procedures set forth under chapter 232, a 5 taxpayer shall be eligible to petition the department once for 6 participation in the administrative appeals and dispute 7 resolution program after issuance of a notice of [~~proposed~~ 8 final assessment; provided that if a taxpayer has filed a tax 9 appeal with the tax appeal court or other court, the taxpayer
10 shall first be required to obtain the approval of the director 11 and permission from the respective court prior to petitioning 12 the department for participation. The director shall have the 13 right to deny a petition for cause."

14 SECTION 4. Section 232-1, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 15 amended to read as follows:

16 "§232-1 Appeals by persons under contractual obligations.
17 Whenever any person is under a contractual obligation to pay a 18 tax assessed against another, the person shall have the same
19 rights of appeal to the [~~board of review,~~] tax appeal review 20 panel, the tax appeal court, and the intermediate appellate 21 court, subject to chapter 602, in the person's own name, as if

1 the tax were assessed against the person. The person against 2 whom the tax is assessed shall also have a right to appear and 3 be heard on any such application or appeal."

4 SECTION 5. Section 232-6, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is
5 amended to read as follows:

6 "§232-6 [Appointment,] Tax appeal review panel;

7 appointment and removal [, compensation]. (a) There is created 8 [~~a board of review for each taxation district. Additional~~ 9 ~~boards may be created in any taxation district by the director~~ 10 ~~of taxation where the number of disputes to be decided cannot be~~ 11 ~~reasonably decided within one year. Each taxation district~~
12 ~~shall have no more than three boards. Each board]~~ a tax appeal 13 review panel to hear appeals duly filed by taxpayers.

14 (b) The panel shall consist of [~~five~~] no more than three 15 members who shall be [~~citizens of the State and residents of the~~ 16 ~~district for which the board is appointed, shall have resided at~~ 17 ~~the time of appointment for at least three years in the State,~~ 18 ~~and shall be appointed and be removable by the governor as~~ 19 ~~provided in section 26-34. The governor shall designate a~~ 20 ~~member of each board to act as chairperson thereof. In~~ 21 ~~addition, the governor shall designate a member of each board to~~

1 ~~act as vice chairperson who shall serve as the chairperson of~~ 2 ~~the board during the temporary absence from the State, illness,~~
 3 ~~or disqualification of the chairperson. Any vacancy in any~~ 4 ~~board shall be filled for the unexpired term. Each member shall~~ 5 ~~receive and be paid out of the treasury compensation for the~~ 6 ~~member's services at the rate of $10 per day for each day's~~ 7 ~~actual attendance and the member's actual traveling expenses.~~ 8 ~~No officer or employee of the State shall be eligible for~~ 9 ~~appointment to any such board.] appointed for terms of five~~

10 years each. All panel members shall be appointed by the 11 director of taxation and be removable by the director of 12 taxation for cause. For the purposes of this section, "cause" 13 includes rendering decisions that are not supported, at a 14 minimum, by a "reasonable basis" as defined in section 231-36.8.

15 (c) The director of taxation shall designate one member of 16 the panel as chairperson. The chairperson of the panel shall be 17 responsible for the administrative functions of the panel, 18 including assigning appeals to panel members for hearing.

19 (d) The members shall devote full time to their duties as 20 members of the panel. No member shall hold any other public 21 office or be in the employment of the State or a county, or any

1 department or agency thereof, or any employee organization
2 during the member's term.

3 (e) Any vacancy in the panel shall not impair the 4 authority of the remaining members to exercise all the powers of 5 the panel. The director of taxation may appoint an acting 6 member of the panel during the temporary absence from the State, 7 temporary inability to act due to recusal, or illness of any 8 regular member. An acting member, during the acting member's 9 term of service, shall have the same powers and duties as the 10 regular member; provided that subsection (d) shall not apply to 11 an acting member; provided further that an acting member 12 appointed due to a regular member's recusal shall be appointed 13 for the case in which the recusal occurred and the acting 14 member's appointment shall terminate when the final decision is 15 filed or the case is withdrawn.

16 (f) The panel shall be within the department of taxation 17 for budgetary and administrative purposes. All members of the 18 panel and its employees shall be exempt from chapters 76 and 19 89."

20 SECTION 6. Section 232-7, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 21 amended to read as follows:

1 "§232-7 [~~Boards of review~~] Tax appeal review panel;
2 duties, powers, procedure before. (a) The [~~board of review for~~ 3 ~~each district~~] tax appeal review panel shall hear informally all 4 disputes between the assessor and any taxpayer in all cases in 5 which appeals have been duly taken and the fact that a notice of 6 appeal has been duly filed by a taxpayer shall be conclusive 7 evidence of the existence of a dispute; provided that this 8 provision shall not be construed to permit a taxpayer to dispute 9 an assessment to the extent that it is in accordance with the 10 taxpayer's return.

11 (b) [~~Each board~~] Each panel member shall hold public 12 meetings [~~at some central location in its taxation district~~] at 13 least once annually and shall hear, as speedily as possible, all 14 appeals presented to the panel and assigned to that panel member 15 for each year. Whenever appropriate and practicable, the panel 16 members may utilize cost efficient means to conduct their 17 proceedings, such as teleconferencing.

18 (c) A taxpayer's identity and final documents submitted in 19 support or opposition of an appeal to the panel shall be public 20 information; provided that an individual taxpayer is authorized 21 to redact all but the last four digits of the taxpayer's social

1 security number from any accompanying tax return. [~~Each board~~]
2 The panel shall have the power and authority to decide all
3 questions of fact and all questions of law, excepting questions
4 involving the Constitution or laws of the United States,
5 necessary to the determination of the objections raised by the 6 taxpayer in the notice of appeal; provided that [~~no board~~] the 7 panel shall have power to determine or declare an assessment 8 illegal or void. Without prejudice to the generality of the 9 foregoing, [~~each board~~] the panel shall have power to allow or 10 disallow exemptions pursuant to law whether or not previously 11 allowed or disallowed by the assessor and to increase or lower 12 any assessment.

13 [~~(e)~~] (d) Each individual member of the panel shall have 14 the authority to render a decision on matters assigned to them.
15 The [~~board~~] panel member shall base [~~its~~] their decision on the 16 evidence before [~~it,~~] them, and, as provided in section 231-20, 17 the assessment made by the assessor shall be deemed prima facie
18 correct. All decisions of the panel shall be reduced to writing 19 and shall state separately the panel's findings of fact and 20 conclusions. The [~~board~~] panel shall file with the assessor 21 concerned its decision in writing on each appeal decided by it,

1 and a certified copy of the decision shall be furnished by the 2 assessor to the taxpayer concerned by delivery or by mailing the 3 copy addressed to the taxpayer's last known place of residence.

4 ~~[(d) Each board and each member thereof in addition to all 5 other powers shall also have the power to subpoena witnesses, 6 administer oaths, examine books and records, and hear and take 7 evidence in relation to any subject pending before the board.
8 The tax appeal court shall have the power, upon request of the 9 boards, to enforce by proper proceedings the attendance of 10 witnesses and the giving of testimony by them, and the 11 production of books, records, and papers at the hearings of the 12 boards.~~

13 ~~(e) If there exists more than one board of review in a 14 taxation district, the chair of one board, administratively and 15 without requirement of any formal action, may assign a member of 16 that board to serve as a temporary member of the requesting 17 board for purposes of establishing a quorum at a designated 18 meeting of the requesting board. The temporary member shall 19 serve only for the specific board meeting for which the 20 assignment is made and only for the period necessary to 21 establish and maintain a quorum. A temporary member may~~

1 ~~participate in discussion and vote on all matters before the~~ 2 ~~board. Nothing herein shall prevent a member from being assigned~~ 3 ~~multiple times under this subsection.]~~

4 (e) Each panel member shall act as an independent hearings 5 officer and shall have the power to administer oaths, compel the 6 attendance of witnesses, produce documentary evidence, examine 7 witnesses, and render decisions on cases assigned to them. 'In 8 case of disobedience by any person of any order or subpoena 9 issued by the panel member, or the refusal of any witness to 10 testify to any matter regarding which the witness may be 11 questioned lawfully, any circuit judge, on application by the 12 director or tax appeal review panel member, shall compel 13 obedience as in the case of disobedience of the requirements of 14 a subpoena issued by a circuit court, or a refusal to testify 15 therein.

16 (f) The panel may employ professional staff and assistants
17 as it may deem necessary in the performance of its functions, 18 prescribe their duties, and fix their compensation and provide 19 for reimbursement of actual and necessary expenses incurred by 20 them in the performance of their duties within the amounts made 21 available by appropriations therefor.

1 (g) At the close of each fiscal year, the panel shall 2 submit a written report to the governor and the director of 3 taxation on its activities, including the cases and their 4 dispositions, and the names, duties, and salaries of its 5 officers and employees; provided that the report shall not 6 contain any information that is not made public under this 7 section."

8 SECTION 7. Section 232-13, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 9 amended to read as follows:

10 "§232-13 Hearing de novo; bill of particulars. The 11 hearing before the tax appeal court shall be a hearing de novo.
12 Irrespective of which party prevails in proceedings before [~~a~~ 13 ~~state board of review,~~] the tax appeal review panel or the 14 county board or any equivalent administrative body established 15 by county ordinance, the assessment as made by the assessor, or 16 if increased by the [~~board,~~] panel or the county board or an 17 equivalent county administrative body, the assessment as so 18 increased, shall be deemed prima facie correct. Each party shall 19 have the right to introduce, or the tax appeal court, of its own 20 motion, may require the taking of such evidence in relation to 21 the subject pending as in the court's discretion may be deemed

1 proper. The court, in the manner provided in section 232-16, 2 shall determine all questions of fact and all questions of law,
3 including constitutional questions, involved in the appeal.

4 The jurisdiction of the tax appeal court is limited to the 5 amount of valuation or taxes, as the case may be, in dispute as 6 shown on the one hand by the amount claimed by the taxpayer or 7 county and on the other hand by the amount of the assessment, or 8 if increased by the [~~board,~~] panel or the county board or an 9 equivalent county administrative body, the assessment as so 10 increased.

11 Assessments for the same year upon other similar property 12 situated in the State shall be receivable in evidence upon the 13 hearing.

14 Upon the application of either the taxpayer, the county, or 15 the assessor, the judge of the tax appeal court, upon notice, 16 may allow and direct a bill of particulars of the claim of 17 either the taxpayer, the county, or the assessor to be delivered 18 to the other, and in case of default the judge shall preclude 19 the person so defaulting from giving evidence of the part or 20 parts of the person's affirmative claim of which particulars 21 have not been delivered."

1 SECTION 8. Section 232-14, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is
2 amended by amending subsection (b) to read as follows:

3 "(b) The [~~boards of review~~] tax appeal review panel shall 4 have power, consistent with this chapter and chapter 91, to make 5 rules relating to procedure, and to prescribe forms to be used, 6 including procedure and forms for the issuance of subpoenas and 7 other process by the [~~boards of review~~] panel or members 8 thereof. The rules shall have the force and effect of law."

9 SECTION 9. Section 232-14.5, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is
10 amended to read as follows:

11 "[+]§ 232-14.5[+] Appeals relating to claims for refund.

12 (a) The denial in whole or in part by the department of 13 taxation of a tax refund claim may be appealed by the filing of 14 a written notice of appeal to [~~a board of review~~] the tax appeal 15 review panel or the tax appeal court within thirty days after 16 notice of the denial of the claim.

17 (b) An appeal may be filed with [~~a board of review~~] the 18 tax appeal review panel or the tax appeal court for review of 19 the merits of a tax refund claim, upon a notice of appeal filed 20 at any time after one hundred eighty days from the date that the

1 claim was filed; provided that the department has not given 2 notice of a denial of the claim within that period.

3 (c) Notwithstanding any law to the contrary under title
4 14, this section shall apply to tax refund claims for all taxes 5 administered by the department of taxation. The procedures for 6 appeals from tax assessors, [~~a board of review,~~] the tax appeal 7 review panel, and the tax appeal court provided under this 8 chapter and under section 235-114 shall apply to appeals
9 relating to tax refund claims under this section. Any claimed 10 tax refund or credit appealed pursuant to this section shall be 11 awarded only if the claim therefor was filed within the 12 applicable statutory period of limitation."

13 SECTION 10. Section 232-15, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 14 amended to read as follows:

15 "§232-15 Appeal to [~~board of review.~~] tax appeal review 16 panel. [~~The appeal to a board of review may be either to the~~ 17 ~~board of review for the district in which the taxpayer has the~~ 18 ~~taxpayer's principal place of business or to the board of review~~ 19 ~~for the district in which the taxpayer resides or has the~~ 20 ~~taxpayer's principal office or to the board of review of the~~ 21 ~~first district.] The notice of appeal [~~must~~] to the tax appeal~~

1 review panel shall be lodged with the panel and the assessor on 2 or before the date fixed by law for the taking of the appeal.
3 An appeal to the [~~board of review~~] tax appeal review panel shall 4 be deemed to have been taken in time if the notice thereof shall 5 have been deposited in the mail, postage prepaid, properly 6 addressed to the panel and assessor, on or before such date.

7 The notice of appeal [~~must~~] shall be in writing and any 8 such notice, however informal it may be, identifying the 9 assessment involved in the appeal and stating the grounds of 10 objection to the assessment shall be sufficient. Upon the 11 necessary information being furnished by the taxpayer to the 12 assessor, the assessor shall prepare the notice of appeal upon 13 request of the taxpayer and any notice so prepared by the 14 assessor shall be deemed sufficient as to its form.

15 The appeal shall be considered and treated for all purposes 16 as a general appeal and shall bring up for determination all
17 questions of fact and all questions of law, excepting questions
18 involving the Constitution or laws of the United States,
19 necessary to the determination of the objections raised by the 20 taxpayer in the notice of appeal. Any objection involving the 21 Constitution or laws of the United States may be included by the

1 taxpayer in the notice of appeal and in such case the objections
2 may be heard and determined by the tax appeal court on appeal
3 from a decision of the [~~board of review; but~~] tax appeal review 4 panel; provided that this provision shall not be construed to 5 confer upon the [~~board of review~~] tax appeal review panel the 6 power to hear or determine such objections. Any notice of 7 appeal may be amended at any time prior to the [~~board's~~] panel's 8 decision; provided the amendment does not substantially change 9 the dispute."

10 SECTION 11. Section 232-16, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 11 amended by amending subsections (a) and (b) to read as follows:

12 "(a) A taxpayer or county may appeal directly to the tax 13 appeal court without appealing to [~~a state board of review~~] the 14 tax appeal review panel or a county board or any equivalent 15 administrative body established by county ordinance; provided 16 that a taxpayer appealing a real property tax assessment shall 17 first obtain a decision from the tax appeal review panel or a 18 county board or an equivalent administrative body established by 19 county ordinance, prior to appealing to the tax appeal court, if 20 county ordinance requires a taxpayer to do so. An appeal to the 21 tax appeal court is properly commenced by filing, on or before

1 the date fixed by law for the taking of the appeal, a written 2 notice of appeal in the office of the tax appeal court and by 3 service of the notice of appeal on the director of taxation and, 4 in the case of an appeal from a decision involving the county as 5 a party, the real property assessment division of the county 6 involved. An appealing taxpayer shall also pay the costs in the 7 amount fixed by section 232-22.

8 (b) The notice of appeal to the tax appeal court shall be 9 sufficient if it meets the requirements prescribed for a notice 10 of appeal to the [~~board of review~~] tax appeal review panel and 11 may be amended at any time; provided that it sets forth a brief 12 description of the property involved in sufficient detail to 13 identify the same and the valuation placed thereon by the 14 assessor."

15 SECTION 12. Section 232-17, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 16 amended to read as follows:

17 "§232-17 Appeals from [~~boards of review~~] tax appeal review
18 panel to tax appeal court. An appeal shall lie to the tax 19 appeal court from the decision of [~~a state board of review,~~] the 20 tax appeal review panel or a county board or equivalent 21 administrative body established by county ordinance. An appeal

1 to the tax appeal court is properly commenced by the filing, by 2 the taxpayer, or the county, or the director of taxation, of a 3 written notice of appeal in the office of the tax appeal court 4 within thirty days after the filing of the decision of the 5 ~~[state board of review,]~~ tax appeal review panel, county board, 6 or an equivalent county administrative body, and, in the case of 7 any appealing taxpayer, the payment of the costs of court in the 8 amount fixed by section 232-22, and service of the notice of 9 appeal on the director of taxation and, in the case of an appeal 10 from a decision involving the county as a party, the real 11 property assessment division of the county involved. A notice 12 of appeal shall be sufficient if it states that the taxpayer, 13 county, or director of taxation appeals from the decision of the 14 ~~[state board of review,]~~ tax appeal review panel, a county
15 board, or an equivalent county administrative body, to the tax 16 appeal court and may be amended at any time. The appeal shall 17 bring up for determination all questions of fact and all 18 questions of law, including constitutional questions involved in 19 the appeal.

20 In case of an appeal by the county or the director of 21 taxation, a copy of the notice of appeal shall be forthwith

1 delivered or mailed to the taxpayer concerned or to the clerk of 2 the county concerned in the manner provided in section 232-7 for 3 giving notice of decisions.

4 An appeal shall be deemed to have been taken in time, and 5 properly commenced, if the notice thereof and costs, if any, and 6 the copy or copies of the notice shall have been deposited in 7 the mail, postage prepaid, properly addressed to the tax appeal 8 court, director of taxation, taxpayer or taxpayers, and, if 9 relevant, the real property assessment division of the county
10 involved, respectively, within the time period provided by this 11 section."

12 SECTION 13. Section 232-18, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 13 amended to read as follows:

14 "§232-18 Certificate of appeal to tax appeal court. Upon 15 the perfecting of an appeal to the tax appeal court, the tax 16 assessor [~~of the district from which the appeal is taken~~] shall 17 immediately send up to the tax appeal court a certificate in 18 which there shall be set forth the information required by 19 section 232-16 to be set forth in the notice of appeal where an 20 appeal is taken direct from the assessment to the tax appeal 21 court.

1 The certificate shall be accompanied by the taxpayer's 2 return, if any has been filed; provided that the department of 3 taxation is authorized to redact all but the last four digits of 4 an individual taxpayer's social security number from an 5 accompanying tax return, a copy of the notice of appeal to the 6 ~~[state board of review]~~ tax appeal review panel or the county
7 board or an equivalent administrative body established by county 8 ordinance, and any amendments thereto, and the decision or 9 action, if any, of the ~~[state board of review]~~ tax appeal review 10 panel or the county board or an equivalent administrative body.
11 Failure of the assessor to comply herewith shall not prejudice 12 or affect the taxpayer's, county's, or assessor's appeal and the 13 certificate of appeal may be amended at any time up to the final 14 determination of the appeal."

15 SECTION 14. Section 232-20, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 16 amended to read as follows:

17 "§232-20 Certificate of appeal. Upon the perfection of an 18 appeal, the judge of the tax appeal court shall send to the 19 appellate court a certificate in which there shall be set forth, 20 among other things:

- 1 (1) A brief description of the assessment and the property
2 involved in the appeal, if any, in sufficient detail
3 to identify the same together with the valuation 4 placed on the property by the assessor;
- 5 (2) The valuation claimed by the taxpayer or county;
- 6 (3) The taxpayer's or county's grounds of objection to the 7 assessment;
- 8 (4) The valuation, if any, placed thereon by the county
9 board or an administrative body established by county 10 ordinance equivalent to [~~a state board of review;~~] the 11 tax appeal review panel; and
- 12 (5) The valuation placed thereon by the tax appeal court.
- 13 The certificate shall be accompanied by the taxpayer's 14 return, if any, a copy of the notice of appeal from the 15 assessment and any amendments thereof, the decision, if any, of 16 the [~~state board of review~~] tax appeal review panel or the 17 county board or an equivalent county administrative body, a copy 18 of the notice of appeal from the decision of the [~~state board of~~ 19 ~~review~~] tax appeal review panel or the county board or an 20 equivalent county administrative body, if any, and any 21 amendments thereof, and a transcript or statement of the

1 evidence before and the decision of the tax appeal court, and 2 all exhibits, motions, orders, or other documents specified by 3 either the taxpayer, the county, or the assessor. No failure of 4 the judge of the tax appeal court to send or properly prepare 5 the certificate or the accompanying documents shall prejudice, 6 limit, or in any manner affect the taxpayer's, county's, or 7 assessor's appeal, and the certificate of appeal may be amended 8 at any time up to the final determination of the appeal."

9 SECTION 15. Section 232-22, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 10 amended to read as follows:

11 "§232-22 Costs; deposit for on appeal. No costs shall be 12 charged on appeal to the [~~state board of review.~~] tax appeal 13 review panel.

14 The nonrefundable costs to be deposited in any one case per 15 taxpayer on any appeal to the tax appeal court shall be an 16 amount set pursuant to rules adopted by the supreme court, which 17 shall not exceed $100.

18 On appeal to the intermediate appellate court, the deposit
19 for costs, and costs chargeable, shall be the same as in appeals 20 from decisions of circuit courts, as provided by sections 607-5 21 and 607-6. If the decision of the intermediate appellate court

1 or the supreme court on transfer from or review of the 2 intermediate appellate court is in favor of the taxpayer, the 3 taxpayer shall pay no costs for the appeal, and any payment or 4 deposit therefor shall be returned to the taxpayer. If the 5 decision is only partly in favor of the taxpayer, the costs
6 shall be prorated in the manner provided by section 232-23. No
7 costs shall be payable by, and no deposit shall be required 8 from, the assessor or the county in any case."

9 SECTION 16. Section 232-23, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 10 amended by amending subsection (a) to read as follows:

11 "(a) In the event of an appeal by a taxpayer to the [~~state~~ 12 ~~board of review,~~] tax appeal review panel, if the appeal is 13 compromised, or is sustained as to fifty per cent or more of the 14 amount in dispute, the costs deposited shall be returned to the 15 appellant. Otherwise the entire amount of costs deposited shall 16 be retained."

17 SECTION 17. Section 232-24, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 18 amended to read as follows:

19 "§232-24 Taxes paid pending appeal. The tax paid upon the 20 amount of any assessment, actually in dispute and in excess of 21 that admitted by the taxpayer, and covered by an appeal to the

1 tax appeal court duly taken, shall, pending the final 2 determination of the appeal, be paid by the director of finance 3 into the "litigated claims fund". If the final determination is 4 in whole or in part in favor of the appealing taxpayer, the 5 director of finance shall repay to the taxpayer out of the fund, 6 or if investment of the fund should result in a deficit therein,
7 out of the general fund of the State, the amount of the tax paid 8 upon the amount held by the court to have been excessive or 9 nontaxable, together with from the date of each payment into the 10 litigated claims fund, the interest to be paid from the general 11 fund of the State. For purposes of this section, the rate of 12 interest shall be computed by reference to section 6621(a) (with 13 respect to interest rate determination) of the Internal Revenue 14 Code of 1986, as of January 1, 2010. The balance, if any, of 15 the payment made by the appealing taxpayer, or the whole of the 16 payment, in case the decision is wholly in favor of the 17 assessor, shall, upon the final determination, become a 18 realization under the tax law concerned.

19 In a case of an appeal to [~~a board of review,~~] the tax 20 appeal review panel, the tax paid, if any, upon the amount of 21 the assessment actually in dispute and in excess of that

1 admitted by the taxpayer, shall, during the pendency of the 2 appeal and until and unless an appeal is taken to the tax appeal 3 court, be held by the director of finance in a special deposit.
4 In the event of final determination of the appeal [~~in the board~~ 5 ~~of review,~~] by the tax appeal review panel, the director of 6 finance shall repay to the appealing taxpayer out of the deposit
7 the amount of the tax paid upon the amount held by the [~~board~~ 8 panel] to have been excessive or nontaxable, if any, the balance, 9 if any, or the whole of the deposit, in case the decision is 10 wholly in favor of the assessor, to become a realization under 11 the tax law concerned."

12 SECTION 18. Section 232-25, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 13 amended to read as follows:

14 "§232-25 Amendment of assessment list to conform to 15 decision. The assessor shall alter or amend the assessment and 16 the assessment list in conformity with the decision or judgment 17 of the last [~~board~~] panel or court to which an appeal may have 18 been taken."

19 SECTION 19. Section 235-114, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 20 amended as follows:

1 "§235-114 Appeals. (a) Any person aggrieved by any 2 assessment of the tax or liability imposed by this chapter may 3 appeal from the assessment in the manner and within the time 4 hereinafter set forth. Appeal may be made either to the 5 [~~district board of review~~] tax appeal review panel or to the tax 6 appeal court. The first appeal to either the [~~district board of~~ 7 ~~review~~] tax appeal review panel or to the tax appeal court may 8 be made without payment of the tax so assessed. Either the 9 taxpayer or the assessor may appeal to the tax appeal court from 10 a decision by the [~~board~~] panel or to the intermediate appellate 11 court from a decision by the tax appeal court; provided that if 12 the decision by the [~~board~~] panel or the tax appeal court is 13 appealed by the taxpayer, or the decision by the [~~board~~] panel 14 in favor of the department is not appealed, the taxpayer shall 15 pay the tax so assessed plus interest as provided in section 16 231-39(b) (4).

17 (b) If the appeal is first made to the [~~board,~~] panel, the 18 appeal shall either be heard by the [~~board~~] panel or be 19 transferred to the tax appeal court for hearing at the election 20 of the taxpayer or employer. If heard by the [~~board,~~] panel, an 21 appeal shall lie from the decision thereof to the tax appeal

1 court and to the intermediate appellate court, subject to 2 chapter 602, in the manner and with the costs provided by 3 chapter 232. The supreme court shall prescribe forms to be used
4 in the appeals. The forms shall show:

5 (1) The amount of taxes or liability upon the basis of the 6 taxpayer's computation of the taxpayer's taxable
7 income or the employer's computation of the employer's 8 liability;

9 (2) The amount upon the basis of the assessor's 10 computation;

11 (3) The amount upon the basis of the decisions of the 12 [~~board of review~~] tax appeal review panel and tax 13 appeal court, if any; and 14 (4) The amount in dispute.

15 If or when the appeal is filed with or transferred to the tax 16 appeal court, the court shall proceed to hear and determine the 17 appeal, subject to appeal to the intermediate appellate court as 18 is provided in chapter 232.

19 (c) Any taxpayer or employer appealing from any assessment 20 of income taxes or liability shall lodge with the assessor or 21 assistant assessor a notice of the appeal in writing, stating

1 the ground of the taxpayer's or employer's objection to the 2 additional assessment or any part thereof. The taxpayer or 3 employer also shall file the notice of appeal with the [~~board~~
4 panel] or the tax appeal court at any time within thirty days
5 subsequent to the date when the notice of assessment was mailed, 6 properly addressed to the taxpayer or employer at the taxpayer's 7 or employer's last known residence or place of business. Except 8 as otherwise provided, the manner of taking the appeal, the 9 costs applicable thereto, and the hearing and disposition 10 thereof, including the distribution of costs and of taxes paid 11 by the taxpayer pending the appeal, shall be as provided in 12 chapter 232.

13 The tax appeal court may allow an individual taxpayer to 14 file a subsequent appeal without payment of the net income tax 15 in cases where the total tax liability does not exceed $50,000
16 in the aggregate for all tax years, upon proof that the taxpayer 17 would be irreparably injured by payment of the tax."

18 SECTION 20. Any person who has already filed an appeal 19 with a board of review as of the effective date of this Act may 20 choose to continue their appeal before the board of review or 21 withdraw their appeal and re-file the appeal with the tax appeal

1 review panel; provided that, on January 1, 2021, all appeals 2 that are pending before a board of review shall be transferred 3 automatically to the tax appeal review panel.

4 SECTION 21. There is appropriated out of the general
5 revenues of the State of Hawaii the sum of $ or so 6 much thereof as may be necessary for fiscal year 2019-2020 and 7 $ or so much thereof as may be necessary for fiscal 8 year 2020-2021 to carry out the purposes of this Act, including 9 the payment of salaries of members, the hiring of one staff 10 position, and other associated administrative costs.

11 The sums appropriated shall be expended by the department
12 of taxation for the purposes of this Act.

13 SECTION 22. This Act does not affect rights and duties 14 that matured, penalties that were incurred, and proceedings that 15 were begun before its effective date; provided that all appeals 16 filed before January 1, 2021, in which a decision has not been 17 issued shall be heard by the tax appeal review panel, as created 18 by this Act. This Act also does not affect county real property 19 tax appeals and the respective county boards of review to which 20 they are appealed, nor does it abrogate any county ordinance 21 relating to a county's real property tax appeal procedures.

1 SECTION 23. Statutory material to be repealed is bracketed
2 and stricken. New statutory material is underscored.

3 SECTION 24. This Act shall take effect on July 1, 2019.

Report Title:

Tax Appeals; Tax Appeal Review Panel; Administrative Appeals and Dispute Resolution Program; Appropriation

Description:

Replaces the tax boards of review with a single tax appeal review panel comprised of members who shall devote full time to their duties. Amends the grounds upon which an appeal to the administrative appeals and dispute resolution program may be made by disallowing appeals of proposed assessments. Allows any person who has already filed an appeal with a board of review to continue or withdraw their appeal and refile their appeal with the tax appeal review panel until 1/1/2021, at which point all remaining appeals before a board of review automatically transfer to the tax appeal review panel. Makes an appropriation. (SD2)
