RELATING TO THE COLLEGE SAVINGS PROGRAM.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

SECTION 1. In 2002, the State established a college savings program called "TuitionEDGE", pursuant to chapter 256, Hawaii Revised Statutes, and section 529 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. In November 2007, the program was revised and renamed as "HI529 Hawaii's College Savings Program". The program assists and encourages families to save and invest funds for future higher education expenses. The investment income earned under the program is exempt from federal and state taxes; provided that the funds are used for qualified higher education expenses.

The legislature finds that, based on data from The Pew Charitable Trusts, while the amount of assets in Hawaii's college savings program increased from 2010 to 2017, the rate of increase lags far behind the rate of increase of assets in most other states' corresponding programs. The legislature further finds that most other states offer a state tax deduction or credit for contributions to their state college savings programs.
as an incentive for their residents to participate. The legislature therefore finds that, as the cost of higher education continues to rise, it is appropriate for the State to provide a similar incentive to Hawaii taxpayers to participate in Hawaii's college savings program, thus helping Hawaii families save for college instead of taking out educational loans. Furthermore, such an incentive will increase the Hawaii program's assets so that the State and program participants may obtain a lower program management fee in the future.

The purpose of this Act is to provide a state income tax deduction for program contributions to the Hawaii college savings program.

SECTION 2. Chapter 235, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended by adding a new section to be appropriately designated and to read as follows:

"§235- Hawaii college savings program. (a) There shall be allowed as a deduction from gross income contributions made to an account in the Hawaii college savings program established under chapter 256; provided that the annual deductions for the contributions shall be up to:
(1) $______ for taxpayers filing a single return and for married couples filing separate returns; provided that each spouse may claim a deduction up to $______; and

(2) $______ for married couples filing joint returns, heads of household, or surviving spouses; provided that the deduction shall be available to married couples filing joint returns if at least one spouse is an account owner in the Hawaii college savings program; provided further that only a taxpayer who is an account owner in the Hawaii college savings program shall be allowed to claim the applicable deduction for contributions made by the taxpayer into the taxpayer's account in the Hawaii college savings program.

(b) In order to be deductible for a particular taxable year, a contribution shall be credited to the taxpayer's account in the Hawaii college savings program on or before the last day of that taxable year; provided that if a contribution is mailed in, it shall be postmarked on or before the last day of that taxable year.

(c) Rollovers from another state's college savings program into Hawaii's college saving program shall not be considered to be contributions eligible for the tax deduction under this section.

(d) If the amount of the tax deduction exceeds the taxpayer's taxable income for the taxable year in which the contribution is made, the excess deduction may be used as a deduction against the taxpayer's taxable income in subsequent tax years until the excess deduction is exhausted.

(e) Contributions to the Hawaii college savings program that have been deducted from the taxpayer's adjusted gross income for prior taxable years shall be subject to recapture if the taxpayer makes a subsequent nonqualified withdrawal from the Hawaii college savings program. The contribution shall be recaptured by adding the amount previously deducted, not to exceed the amount of the nonqualified withdrawal, to the taxpayer's adjusted gross income for the tax year in which the nonqualified withdrawal occurred.

(f) As used in this section:

"Contribution" means:

(1) Any payment directly allocated to a Hawaii college savings program account for the benefit of a designated beneficiary, or used to pay administrative fees associated with the account; and

(2) The portion of any rollover amount treated as a contribution under section 529 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or successor legislation.

"Rollover" means a distribution or transfer from an account that is transferred to or deposited within sixty calendar days of the distribution into an account of the same person for the benefit of the same designated beneficiary or another person who is a member of the family of the designated beneficiary if the transferee account was created under chapter 256 or another college savings program maintained in accordance with section 529 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or successor legislation."

SECTION 3. Section 23-95, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended by amending subsection (c) to read as follows:

"(c) This section shall apply to the following:

(1) Section 235-5.5--Deduction for individual housing account deposit;

(2) Section 235-7(f)--Deduction of property loss due to a

(8) Section 235---Deduction for contributions to an account in the Hawaii college savings program."

SECTION 4. Statutory material to be repealed is bracketed and stricken. New statutory material is underscored.

SECTION 5. This Act shall take effect on July 1, 2050, and shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 2018.
