A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO AGRICULTURE.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAI'I:

PART I

SECTION 1. The Hawaii Revised Statutes is amended by adding a new chapter to title 11 to be appropriately designated and to read as follows:

"CHAPTER

AGRICULTURAL ENFORCEMENT PROGRAM

§ -1 Definitions. As used in this chapter, "the offense of theft of an agricultural product or commodity" means any theft of an agricultural product or commodity pursuant to sections 708-830, 708-830.5, 708-831, 708-832, 708-833, or 708-835.5.

§ -2 Board of agriculture; powers and duties. The board of agriculture shall establish within the department of agriculture an agricultural enforcement program and shall employ or appoint, and remove, the following persons, subject to chapter 76 and section 78-1, who shall be provided with suitable badges or insignia of office by the department of agriculture:
(1) An enforcement chief of the department of agriculture, who shall be the head of the agricultural enforcement program and shall have charge, direction, and control, subject to the direction and control of the board of agriculture, of all matters relating to the enforcement of the offense of theft of an agricultural product or commodity, and any other matters as determined by the board of agriculture. The enforcement chief shall be an administrator experienced in addressing agricultural theft; and

(2) Personnel and enforcement officers of the agricultural enforcement program, including but not limited to enforcement officers serving on a voluntary basis without pay.

§  -3 Agricultural enforcement special fund; established.

(a) There is established in the state treasury the agricultural enforcement special fund to be administered by the department of agriculture.

(b) The following shall be deposited into the agricultural enforcement special fund:
(1) Grants, awards, donations, gifts, transfers, or moneys derived from public or private sources for the purposes of enforcing the offense of theft of an agricultural product or commodity, or any other matters as determined by the board of agriculture;

(2) Fees, reimbursements, administrative charges, and penalties collected for activities related to the enforcement of laws and rules protecting agricultural products or commodities, except as otherwise provided by any law that requires deposit of these moneys into other special funds administered by the department of agriculture;

(3) Moneys derived from any interest, dividends, or other income from the above-mentioned sources; and

(4) Appropriations by the legislature to the special fund.

(c) The agricultural enforcement special fund shall be used for expenditures relating to the agricultural enforcement program, including:

(1) Training;

(2) Research;

(3) Equipment;
(4) Preparation and dissemination of information to the public;
(5) Data collection and development;
(6) Information technology;
(7) Safety;
(8) Wireless communication;
(9) Management;
(10) Travel;
(11) Equipment rental;
(12) Repairs;
(13) Planning;
(14) Information;
(15) Education;
(16) Operations;
(17) Maintenance functions authorized and deemed necessary by the department of agriculture;
(18) Funding for consultants or contractual hires related to the enforcement of the offense of theft of an agricultural product or commodity, or any other matters as determined by the board of agriculture; and
(19) Work performed in cooperation with enforcement authorities of the State, the counties, and the federal government.

(d) The fund shall be held separate and apart from all other moneys, funds, and accounts in the department of agriculture; provided that any moneys received from the federal government or from private contributions shall be deposited and accounted for in accordance with any conditions established by the department of agriculture or the entity from which the moneys are received. Any balance remaining in the fund at the end of any fiscal year shall be carried forward in the fund for the next fiscal year.

§ -4 Board of agriculture; delegation of authority. The board of agriculture may delegate to enforcement officers within the agricultural enforcement program any authority that may be required for enforcement of the offense of theft of an agricultural product or commodity, or any other matters as determined by the board of agriculture.

§ -5 Duties of agricultural enforcement officers; other law enforcement officers. (a) Agricultural enforcement officers shall:
(1) Enforce the offense of theft of an agricultural product or commodity;
(2) Investigate complaints, gather evidence, conduct investigations, and conduct field observations and inspections as required or assigned;
(3) Cooperate with any enforcement authorities of the State, counties, and federal government in development of programs and mutual aid agreements for agricultural enforcement activities within the State; and
(4) Carry out other duties and responsibilities as determined by the board of agriculture.

(b) Every state or county officer charged with the enforcement of laws and ordinances shall enforce and assist in the enforcement of the offense of theft of an agricultural product or commodity, and any other matters as determined by the board of agriculture.

(c) The department of agriculture shall enter into memoranda of agreement with the division of conservation and resources enforcement of the department of land and natural resources, the sheriff division of the department of public safety, and each county police department as necessary to effectuate the purposes of this section.

§ 6 Board of agriculture; police powers.  (a) The board of agriculture shall have police powers and may appoint and commission enforcement officers within the agricultural enforcement program. Persons appointed and commissioned under this section shall have and may exercise all of the powers and authority of a police officer, including the power of arrest.
In addition to enforcing the offense of theft of an agricultural product or commodity, and any other matters as determined by the board of agriculture, enforcement officers appointed or commissioned under this section may enforce all other state laws and rules and county ordinances within all lands and waters of the State; provided that any power granted pursuant to this section shall remain in force and effect only while in actual performance of their duties, which shall include off-duty employment when that employment is for other state departments or agencies. These enforcement officers shall consist of personnel whose primary duty is the enforcement of the offense of theft of an agricultural product or commodity, and any other matters as determined by the board of agriculture.
(b) An enforcement officer, upon arresting any person for violation of the offense of theft of an agricultural product or commodity, or any other matter as determined by the board of agriculture, may immediately:

(1) Take the person arrested to a police station or before a district judge; or

(2) Take the name and address of the person, note the violation of the law or rule by the person, and issue the person a summons or citation, printed in the form described in section -7, warning the person to appear and to answer to the charge against the person at a certain place and time within seven days after the arrest.

Any person failing to obey a summons issued pursuant to this section shall be subject to section -8.

§ -7 Summons or citation. There shall be a form of summons or citation for use in citing violators of the offense of theft of an agricultural product or commodity, or any other matters as determined by the board of agriculture, that does not mandate the physical arrest of the violators. The summons or citation shall be printed in a form commensurate with the form of other summons or citation used in modern methods of arrest and shall be designed to include all necessary information to make it valid and legal within the laws and rules of the State.
The form and content of the summons or citation shall be adopted or prescribed by the district courts.

In every case where a summons or citation is issued, the original summons or citation shall be given to the violator; provided that the district courts may prescribe the issuance to the violator of a copy of the summons or citation and provide for the disposition of the original and any other copies. Every summons or citation shall be consecutively numbered, and each copy shall bear the number of its respective original.

§ 8 Failure to obey a summons. Any person who fails to appear at the place and within the time specified in a summons or citation issued by an officer or their agent or subordinate, upon that person's arrest for violation of the offense of theft of an agricultural product or commodity, or any other matters as determined by the board of agriculture, shall be guilty of a petty misdemeanor and upon conviction, shall be fined no more than $500 or be imprisoned no more than thirty days, or both.
If any person fails to comply with a summons or citation issued, or if any person fails or refuses to deposit bail as required and within the time permitted, the officers shall cause a complaint to be entered against the person and secure the issuance of a warrant for the person's arrest.

When a complaint is made to any prosecuting officer of the violation of the offense of theft of an agricultural product or commodity, or any other matters as determined by the board of agriculture, the officer who issued the summons or citation shall subscribe to it under oath administered by another official or officials of the department of agriculture whose names have been submitted to the prosecuting officer and who have been designated by the chairperson of the board of agriculture to administer the oath.

§ 9 Search and seizure; forfeiture of property. (a) Any police officer or agent of the department of agriculture upon whom the board of agriculture has conferred police powers shall have the authority to:

(1) Conduct searches on probable cause as provided by law;

(2) Seize any equipment, article, instrument, aircraft, vehicle, vessel, business records, or agricultural product or commodity used or taken in the course of committing the offense of theft of an agricultural product or commodity; or

(3) Enforce any other matters as determined by the board of agriculture.

(b) Any equipment, article, instrument, aircraft, vehicle, vessel, business records, or agricultural product or commodity seized is subject to forfeiture pursuant to chapter 712A.

Unless otherwise directed by the court pursuant to chapter 712A, any item, other than an agricultural product or commodity, seized shall be ordered forfeited to the State for disposition as determined by the department of agriculture, or may be destroyed, or may be kept and retained and utilized by the department of agriculture or any other state agency. If not needed or required by the department of agriculture or other state agency, the forfeited items shall be disposed of as provided by chapter 712A. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, any live agricultural product or commodity seized, including livestock, may be immediately returned to its owner or may be disposed of as determined by the department of agriculture; provided that if the agricultural product or commodity disposed of was unlawfully seized, the department of agriculture shall be liable to the owner for the fair market value of any disposed items.

(c) The department of agriculture shall compile a list of all equipment, articles, instruments, aircraft, vehicles, vessels, or any agricultural products or commodities forfeited under this section and shall publish the list in its annual report.

(d) Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, the department of agriculture may sell or take actions to cause the sale of any perishable agricultural product or commodity that is seized to prevent the waste of the agricultural product or commodity and to ensure the economic value of the agricultural product or commodity. The department of agriculture may require the person or persons who took the agricultural product or commodity to sell the seized agricultural product or commodity at fair market value. The department of agriculture may require any person purchasing any seized agricultural product or commodity to deliver the proceeds of the sale to the department of agriculture or its authorized representative. Any person who refuses to sell the seized agricultural product or commodity at fair market value or any person who fails to deliver the proceeds of the sale, as directed by the department of agriculture, shall be in violation of this subsection and punishable as provided by law.

The department of agriculture shall deposit and keep the proceeds of any sale made pursuant to this section in an interest bearing account until the suspected violation is settled between the person or persons who took the agricultural product or commodity, consignee or consignees, if any, and the department of agriculture. Should a settlement not be reached, the department of agriculture shall submit the proceeds of the sale to the court. The proceeds of the sale, after deducting any reasonable costs of the sale incurred by the department of agriculture, shall be subject to any administrative or judicial proceedings in the same manner as the seized agricultural product or commodity would have been, including an action in rem for the forfeiture of the proceeds. Seizure and sale of an agricultural product or commodity is without prejudice to any other remedy or sanction authorized by law."
SECTION 2. Section 28-151, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended by amending the definition of "law enforcement officer" to read as follows:

"Law enforcement officer" means a sheriff, deputy sheriff, police officer, enforcement officer within the department of land and natural resources conservation and resources enforcement program, enforcement officer within the department of agriculture agricultural enforcement program, enforcement officer within the department of transportation harbors division, and any other employee of a state or county public body who carries a badge and firearm and has powers of arrest."

SECTION 3. Section 134-16, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended to read as follows:

"§134-16 Restriction on possession, sale, gift, or delivery of electric guns. (a) It shall be unlawful for any person, including a licensed manufacturer, licensed importer, or licensed dealer, to possess, offer for sale, hold for sale, sell, give, lend, or deliver any electric gun.

(b) Any electric gun possessed, offered for sale, held for sale, sold, given, lent, or delivered in violation of subsection (a) shall be confiscated and disposed of by the chief of police.

manufacturer or from a manufacturer-approved training program, as well as by manufacturer-certified or approved instructors in the use of electric guns prior to deployment of the electric guns and related equipment in public. Training for agricultural enforcement officers of the department of agriculture, conservation and resources enforcement officers of the department of land and natural resources, law enforcement officers of the department of public safety, and law enforcement officers of the department of transportation may be done concurrently to ensure cost savings.

(f) No later than June 30, 2018, the conservation and resources enforcement program of the department of land and natural resources shall meet the law enforcement accreditation or recognition standards of the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies, Inc., in the use of electric guns.

(g) No later than June 30, 2024, the law enforcement officers appointed by the director of transportation shall meet the law enforcement accreditation or recognition standards of the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies, Inc., in the use of electric guns.
(h) No later than __________, the agricultural enforcement program of the department of agriculture shall meet the law
