
A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO THE JUDICIARY.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. The legislature finds that temporary
2 restraining orders, protective orders, and injunctions
3 restraining a person from contacting, threatening, physically
4 abusing, or harassing a minor typically expire when the minor 5 reaches the age of majority because there is ambiguity whether 6 the courts have the authority to issue these orders for a period
7 that extends beyond the date when the minor turns eighteen years 8 of age. This forces the now eighteen-year-old who was 9 previously protected to return to court and complete the process
10 again.

11 The purpose of this Act is to clarify that the courts have 12 the authority to issue temporary restraining orders, protective 13 orders, and injunctions for reasonable time periods that expire
14 after a protected minor reaches the age of majority.

15 SECTION 2. Section 586-5, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 16 amended by amending subsection (a) to read as follows:

1 "(a) A temporary restraining order granted pursuant to 2 this chapter shall remain in effect at the discretion of the 3 court, for a period not to exceed one hundred eighty days from 4 the date the order is granted or until the effective date, as 5 defined in section 586-5.6, of a protective order issued by the 6 court, whichever occurs first[-], including, in the case where a 7 temporary restraining order restrains any party from contacting,
8 threatening, or physically abusing a minor, for a period
9 extending to a date after the minor has reached eighteen years
10 of age."

11 SECTION 3. Section 586-5.5, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 12 amended to read as follows:

13 "§586-5.5 Protective order; additional orders. (a) If, 14 after hearing all relevant evidence, the court finds that the 15 respondent has failed to show cause why the order should not be 16 continued and that a protective order is necessary to prevent 17 domestic abuse or a recurrence of abuse, the court may order
18 that a protective order be issued for a further fixed reasonable 19 period as the court deems appropriate[-], including, in the case 20 where a protective order restrains any party from contacting,
21 threatening, or physically abusing a minor, a fixed reasonable

1 period extending to a date after the minor has reached eighteen
2 years of age.

3 The protective order may include all orders stated in the 4 temporary restraining order and may provide for further relief
5 as the court deems necessary to prevent domestic abuse or a 6 recurrence of abuse, including orders establishing temporary 7 visitation and custody with regard to minor children of the 8 parties and orders to either or both parties to participate in 9 domestic violence intervention services. If the court finds 10 that the party meets the requirements under section 11 334-59(a)(2), the court further may order that the party be 12 taken to the nearest facility for emergency examination and 13 treatment.

14 (b) A protective order may be extended for [~~such~~] a 15 further fixed reasonable period as the court deems
16 appropriate[-], including, in the case where a protective order
17 restrains any party from contacting, threatening, or physically
18 abusing a minor, for a fixed reasonable period extending to a 19 date after the minor has reached eighteen years of age. Upon 20 application by a person or agency capable of petitioning under 21 section 586-3, the court shall hold a hearing to determine

1 whether the protective order should be extended. In making a 2 determination, the court shall consider evidence of abuse and 3 threats of abuse that occurred before the initial restraining 4 order and whether good cause exists to extend the protective 5 order.

6 The extended protective order may include all orders stated
7 in the preceding restraining order and may provide such further 8 relief as the court deems necessary to prevent domestic abuse or 9 a recurrence of abuse, including orders establishing temporary 10 visitation and custody with regard to minor children of the 11 parties and orders to either or both parties to participate in 12 domestic violence intervention services. The court may 13 terminate the extended protective order at any time with the 14 mutual consent of the parties.

15 (c) If the court denies a protective order or extended 16 protective order, the court may order upon the oral request of 17 the respondent that the protective order or extended protective 18 order petition record be withheld from public inspection;
19 provided that the record shall remain accessible to law
20 enforcement officers without a court order."

1 SECTION 4. Section 604-10.5, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 2 amended by amending subsection (g) to read as follows:

3 "(g) A temporary restraining order that is granted under 4 this section shall remain in effect at the discretion of the 5 court for a period not to exceed ninety days from the date the 6 order is granted[-], including, in the case where a temporary 7 restraining order restrains any party from harassing a minor,
8 for a period extending to a date after the minor has reached
9 eighteen years of age. A hearing on the petition to enjoin
10 harassment shall be held within fifteen days after the temporary 11 restraining order is granted. If service of the temporary 12 restraining order has not been effected before the date of the 13 hearing on the petition to enjoin, the court may set a new date 14 for the hearing; provided that the new date shall not exceed 15 ninety days from the date the temporary restraining order was 16 granted.

17 The parties named in the petition may file or give oral 18 responses explaining, excusing, justifying, or denying the 19 alleged act or acts of harassment. The court shall receive all 20 evidence that is relevant at the hearing and may make 21 independent inquiry.

1 If the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that 2 harassment as defined in paragraph (1) of that definition
3 exists, it may enjoin for no more than three years further 4 harassment of the petitioner, or that harassment as defined in 5 paragraph (2) of that definition exists, it shall enjoin for no
6 more than three years further harassment of the petitioner[+], 7 including, in the case where any party is enjoined from 8 harassing a minor, for a period extending to a date after the 9 minor has reached eighteen years of age; provided that this 10 paragraph shall not prohibit the court from issuing other 11 injunctions against the named parties even if the time to which 12 the injunction applies exceeds a total of three years.

13 Any order issued under this section shall be served upon 14 the respondent. For the purposes of this section, "served"
15 ~~[shall mean]~~ means actual personal service, service by certified 16 mail, or proof that the respondent was present at the hearing at 17 which the court orally issued the injunction.

18 Where service of a restraining order or injunction has been 19 made or where the respondent is deemed to have received notice 20 of a restraining order or injunction order, any knowing or 21 intentional violation of the restraining order or injunction

1 order shall subject the respondent to the provisions in 2 subsection (i).

3 Any order issued shall be transmitted to the chief of 4 police of the county in which the order is issued by way of 5 regular mail, facsimile transmission, or other similar means of 6 transmission."

7 SECTION 5. This Act does not affect rights and duties that 8 matured, penalties that were incurred, and proceedings that were 9 begun before its effective date.

10 SECTION 6. Statutory material to be repealed is bracketed
11 and stricken. New statutory material is underscored.

12 SECTION 7. This Act shall take effect upon its approval.
