A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO CRIMINAL HISTORY RECORD CHECKS.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

SECTION 1. The Internal Revenue Service requires that background checks be performed on all current and prospective employees and contractors who receive access to federal tax information. The background checks must be comprehensive and must include a state and Federal Bureau of Investigation fingerprint-based background check. To comply with this requirement, the department of the attorney general requires additional authorization. Multiple other departments and agencies have received this authority.

The purpose of this Act is to authorize the department of the attorney general to search criminal histories and fingerprint records of current and prospective employees and employees or agents of contractors who receive access to federal tax information to allow it to comply with the Internal Revenue Service's requirement.
SECTION 2. Chapter 28, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended by adding a new section to part I to be appropriately designated and to read as follows:

"$28— Criminal history record checks. This background investigation shall include criminal history record checks in accordance with section 846-2.7. Information obtained pursuant to this subsection shall be used exclusively by the department of the attorney general for the purpose of determining whether the person is suitable for accessing federal tax information in accordance with applicable federal laws.

(b)  The department of the attorney general may terminate or deny employment to any current or prospective employee, or terminate or refuse to secure the services of any contractor, if the department of the attorney general finds by reason of the background investigation conducted under subsection (a) that the current or prospective employee or employee or agent of the contractor poses a risk to the security of federal tax information. Termination or denial of employment, or termination or refusal to secure the services of any contractor, under this subsection, shall only occur after appropriate notification to the current or prospective employee or employee or agent of the contractor of the findings of the background investigation, and after the current or prospective employee or employee or agent of the contractor is given an opportunity to meet and rebut the findings. Nothing in this subsection shall abrogate any applicable appeal rights under chapters 76 and 89 or administrative rules of the department of the attorney general.

(c) Investigations conducted by the department of the attorney general pursuant to this section shall be exempt from section 831-3.1."
