A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO GOVERNMENT.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1           SECTION 1. The legislature finds that every state in the 2 Union celebrates holidays unique to that state's history. Texas
3 celebrates its own Texas Independence Day, a day honoring Texas'
4 independence from Mexico's central government. Utah celebrates
5 Pioneer Day, the day Brigham Young ventured to its territory.
6 Alaska celebrates Seward's Day, when the purchase treaty between 7 the United States and Russia was codified. The distinctive 8 cultural and storied past of Hawaii has its own holidays that 9 have been celebrated up through the Territory of Hawaii. Lā 10 Kū'oko'a, Hawaiian Recognition Day, was widely celebrated with 11 pride as Hawaii became an emerging power in the Pacific among 12 the global powers of that time.

13           The history and culture of Hawaii are showcased around the 14 world to tell the story of the archipelago. Hawaii's culture 15 and native language are used to make areas, buildings, and 16 communities relevant with a sense of place. Lā Kū'oko'a has long

1 been a source of pride in Hawaii and in recent years has 2 garnered a newfound energy in its celebration.

3       The legislature further finds that during the reign of 4 Kamehameha III, Great Britain and France recognized the 5 independence of the Hawaiian Kingdom by joint proclamation on 6 November 28, 1843. The United States followed on July 6, 1844.
7 These leading world powers recognized Hawaii as an independent 8 nation state due to the diplomatic work of Timoteo Ha'alilio, the 9 first diplomat of the Kingdom of Hawaii, and his associate 10 William Richards, who were sent as envoys of Kamehameha III to 11 secure formal diplomatic relations with these countries.

12       In 1847, Kamehameha III required his Minister of Foreign 13 Affairs, Robert Crichton Wyllie, to determine a fitting way to 14 recognize and celebrate the anniversary of Hawaii's welcome into 15 the family of nations. On October 15, 1847, Wyllie delivered 16 his report, by Privy Council, to the King and ministers. That 17 year marked the first official celebration of Hawaiian 18 Recognition Day, Lā Kū'oko'a.

19       Throughout the 1850s and 1870s, Hawaii celebrated Lā
20 Kū'oko'a with luau, music, and marches. The celebration grew 21 under the reign of King Kalākaua, with formal proclamations sent

1 by official circular to the foreign diplomatic corps in Hawaii
2 and the Hawaiian Kingdom consuls abroad, informing them of the 3 holiday.

4 The day remained a national holiday under the Provisional
5 Government of Hawaii (1893), the Republic of Hawaii (1894-1898),
6 and the initial years of the Territory of Hawaii. Lā Kū'oko'a 7 was among the codified list of national holidays enacted by the 8 Republic of Hawaii in 1896 (Act 66).

9 The purpose of this Act is to establish November 28 of each 10 year as Lā Kū'oko'a, Hawaii Recognition Day, to celebrate the 11 historical recognition of the independence of the Kingdom of 12 Hawaii.

13 SECTION 2. Chapter 8, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended 14 by adding a new section to be appropriately designated and to 15 read as follows:

16 "§8- La Ku'oko'a; Hawaiian Recognition Day. November 28
17 of each year shall be known and designated as La Ku'oko'a, 18 Hawaiian Recognition Day, to celebrate the historical 19 recognition of the independence of the Kingdom of Hawaii. This 20 day is not and shall not be construed to be a state holiday."

21 SECTION 3. New statutory material is underscored.

1 SECTION 4. This Act shall take effect upon its approval.

Report Title:

Lā Kū'oko'a; Hawaiian Recognition Day

Description:

Designates November 28 of each year as Lā Kū'oko'a, Hawaiian Recognition Day, not constituting a state holiday, to celebrate the historical recognition of independence of the kingdom of Hawaii. (SD1)
