Comments: Lots of people take the bus.. so they should get compensated too.

Please note that testimony submitted less than 24 hours prior to the hearing, improperly identified, or directed to the incorrect office, may not be posted online or distributed to the committee prior to the convening of the public hearing.

Comments: I support this bill because as a citizen who uses "The Bus" system, it is important that people who serve on juries who do not have cars should be compensated fairly like those who have vehicles. There is a cost to catching the bus system, both in money and time.
