

1           (A) Coins or currency; or
2           (B) Scrips, tickets, or tokens that may be redeemed
3           for coins or currency;
4 provided that the term does not apply to change machines or 5 vending machines that in their normal operation do not dispense 6 more cash than was inserted for any single transaction or to any 7 automated teller machine.

8           "Monetary payout" means coins or currency dispensed as a 9 result of a transaction and includes scrips, tickets, or tokens
10 that may be redeemed for coins or currency. The term does not 11 include scrips, tickets, or tokens that can only be redeemed for 12 merchandise or playing time on games, unless the merchandise or 13 playing time may also be redeemed for coins or currency.

14           "Transaction" means a sequence of events initiated by 15 inserting one or more coins or tokens or any currency into a 16 device and culminating in a monetary payout.

17           (d) The owner of a commercial establishment shall be fined 18 $2,500 for each device that is located at the establishment and 19 in violation of this section. The attorney general may bring a 20 civil action to enforce this section."
