
A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO THE ELECTION OF THE PRESIDENT.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. Section 12-1, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is
2 amended to read as follows:

3 "§12-1 Application of chapter. All candidates for 4 elective office, except as provided in section 14-21, shall be 5 nominated in accordance with this chapter and not otherwise.
6 This chapter is applicable to the presidential preference
7 primary, but in no way shall it supersede section 11-113
8 concerning the names that will appear on the general election 9 ballot."

10 SECTION 2. Section 12-2, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 11 amended to read as follows:

12 "§12-2 Primary held when; candidates only those nominated.
13 The primary shall be held on the second Saturday of August in 14 every even numbered year[~~-~~]; provided that the presidential 15 preference primary shall be held on the first Tuesday after the 16 first Monday in March in any year that is evenly divisible by 17 the number four and at which delegations to national party

1 conventions are to be chosen; provided further that the parties
2 shall be allowed to opt out of the presidential preference
3 primary six months before the presidential preference primary 4 election date.

5 No person shall be a candidate for any general or special 6 general election unless the person has been nominated in the 7 immediately preceding primary or special primary[-]; provided 8 that, consistent with section 11-113, a presidential preference 9 primary election candidate who is not the winner of the 10 presidential preference primary election shall not be precluded 11 from appearing on the general election ballot."

12 SECTION 3. Section 12-2.5, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is
13 amended to read as follows:

14 "§12-2.5 Nomination papers; when available. Nomination 15 papers shall be made available from the first working day of 16 February in every even-numbered year; provided that in the case
17 of a special primary or special election, nomination papers 18 shall be made available [~~at least~~] not fewer than ten days prior 19 to the close of filing[-]; provided further that nomination 20 papers for a presidential preference primary election shall only 21 be for political parties recognized under section 11-61 and

1 shall become available not later than days before the 2 presidential preference primary election to which they 3 correspond."

4 SECTION 4. Section 12-4, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is
5 amended to read as follows:

6 "§12-4 Nomination papers; qualifications of signers. (a)

7 No person shall sign the nomination papers of more than one 8 candidate, partisan or nonpartisan, for the same office, unless 9 there is more than one office in a class in which case no person 10 shall sign papers for more than the actual number of offices in 11 a class. Nomination papers shall be construed in this regard 12 according to priority of filing, and the name of any person 13 appearing thereon shall be counted only so long as this 14 provision is not violated, and not thereafter.

15 (b) Names on nomination papers shall not be counted, 16 unless the signer is a registered voter and is eligible to vote 17 for the candidate. The chief election officer or clerk shall 18 use the most currently compiled general county register 19 available at the time the nomination paper is presented for 20 filing to determine the eligibility of the registered voters to 21 sign for the candidate. Voter registration affidavits that have

1 not been entered into the voter register by the clerk shall not 2 be considered or accepted for this check. At the time of 3 filing, the chief election officer or clerk may reject the 4 candidate's nomination paper for lack of sufficient signers who 5 are eligible to vote for the candidate.

6 (c) Any registered voter who, after signing a nomination 7 paper, seeks to withdraw the voter's signature shall do so by 8 providing written notice to the chief election officer, or clerk 9 in the case of a county office, any time before the filing of 10 the candidate's nomination paper; provided that the notice is 11 received by the chief election officer, or clerk in the case of 12 a county office, no later than 4:30 p.m. on the fourth business 13 day prior to the close of filing pursuant to section 12-6. The 14 written notice shall include the voter's name, residence 15 address, the month and date portions of the voter's date of 16 birth, the voter's signature, the name of the candidate, and a 17 statement that the voter wishes to remove the voter's signature 18 from the candidate's nomination paper; provided that the written 19 notice shall not require the voter's social security number or 20 any portion thereof and the year portion of the voter's date of 21 birth. Any request by a registered voter to remove the voter's

1 signature from a candidate's nomination paper that is received
2 by the chief election officer, or clerk in the case of a county 3 office, after the candidate's nomination paper has been filed or 4 after 4:30 p.m. on the fourth business day prior to the close of 5 filing shall not be accepted.

6 (d) Within twenty-four hours upon receipt of a written 7 notice pursuant to subsection (c), the chief election officer, 8 or clerk in the case of a county office, shall send written 9 notice via registered mail to the candidate that the voter 10 requested to have the voter's signature removed from the 11 candidate's nomination paper and that the signature of the voter 12 shall not be counted.

13 (e) This section shall apply to candidates seeking to 14 appear on the presidential preference primary ballot for a 15 political party recognized under section 11-61."

16 SECTION 5. Section 12-5, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is
17 amended to read as follows:

18 "§12-5 Nomination papers: number of signers. (a) 19 Nomination papers for candidates for president shall be signed 20 by not less than one hundred voters of the State.

1 ~~[(a)]~~ (b) Nomination papers for candidates for members of 2 Congress, governor, and lieutenant governor shall be signed by 3 not less than twenty-five registered voters of the State or of 4 the Congressional district from which the candidates are running 5 in the case of candidates for the United States House of 6 Representatives.

7 ~~[(b)]~~ (c) Nomination papers for candidates for either 8 branch of the legislature and for county office shall be signed 9 by not less than fifteen registered voters of the district or 10 county or subdivision thereof for which the person nominated is 11 a candidate.

12 ~~[(c)]~~ (d) Nomination papers for candidates for members of 13 the board of trustees of the office of Hawaiian affairs shall be 14 signed by not less than twenty-five persons registered to vote.

15 ~~[(d)]~~ (e) No signatures shall be required on nomination 16 papers for candidates filing to run in a special primary or 17 special election to fill a vacancy."

18 SECTION 6. Section 12-6, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is
19 amended to read as follows:

20 "§12-6 Nomination papers: time for filing; fees. (a) 21 For members of Congress, state offices, county offices, and the

1 board of trustees for the office of Hawaiian affairs, nomination
2 papers shall be filed with the chief election officer, or clerk 3 in case of county offices, [~~not~~] no later than 4:30 p.m. on the 4 first Tuesday in June[-]; provided that nomination papers for 5 presidential candidates shall be filed with the chief election
6 officer not later than 4:30 p.m. on the eighty-fifth day before 7 the date of the primary election. However, in the event of a 8 special primary or special election, the filing deadline shall 9 be determined in the proclamation that is issued calling for the 10 election as provided for by state law or county charter. A 11 state candidate from the counties of Hawaii, Maui, and Kauai may 12 file the declaration of candidacy with the respective clerk.
13 The clerk shall transmit to the office of the chief election 14 officer the state candidate's declaration of candidacy without 15 delay.

16 (b) If after the close of filing there are no candidates 17 who have filed nomination papers for an elective office for the 18 primary, special primary, or any special election held in 19 conjunction with the primary election, the chief election 20 officer or clerk, in the case of a county election, shall accept

1 nomination papers for that office until 4:30 p.m. on the tenth
2 day after the original close of filing.

3 ~~[(+) (c) (+)]~~ There shall be deposited with each nomination 4 paper a filing fee on account of the expenses attending the 5 holding of the primary, special primary, or special election, 6 which shall be paid into the treasury of the State, or county,
7 as the case may be, as a realization:

8 (1) For president of the United States--$3,000;

9 ~~[(+)]~~ (2) For United States senators and United States
10 representatives--$75;

11 ~~[(+)]~~ (3) For governor and lieutenant governor--$750;

12 ~~[(+)]~~ (4) For mayor--$500; and

13 ~~[(+)]~~ (5) For all other offices--$250.

14 ~~[(+) (d) (+)]~~ Upon the receipt by the chief election officer 15 or the clerk of the nomination paper of a candidate, the day, 16 hour, and minute when it was received shall be endorsed thereon.

17 (e) Upon the showing of a certified copy of an affidavit
18 ~~[which]~~ that has been filed with the campaign spending 19 commission pursuant to section 11-423 by a candidate who has 20 voluntarily agreed to abide by spending limits, the chief

1 election officer or clerk shall discount the filing fee of the 2 candidate by the following amounts:

3 (1) For the office of governor and lieutenant governor-- 4 $675;

5 (2) For the office of mayor--$450; and

6 (3) For all other offices--$225.

7 †[†] The chief election officer or clerk shall waive 8 the filing fee in the case of a person who declares, by 9 affidavit, that the person is indigent and who has filed a 10 petition signed by currently registered voters who constitute at 11 least one-half of one per cent of the total voters registered at 12 the last preceding general election in the respective district 13 or districts which correspond to the specific office for which 14 the indigent person is a candidate. This petition shall be 15 submitted on the form prescribed and provided by the chief 16 election officer together with the nomination paper required by 17 this chapter."

18 SECTION 7. Section 12-7, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is
19 amended to read as follows:

20 "§12-7 Filing of oath. The name of no candidate for any 21 office shall be printed upon any official ballot, in any

1 election, including a presidential preference primary election, 2 unless the candidate shall have taken and subscribed to the 3 following written oath or affirmation, and filed the oath with 4 the candidate's nomination papers.

5 The written oath or affirmation shall be in the following 6 form:

7 "I,....., do solemnly swear and declare, on oath 8 that if elected to office I will support and defend the 9 Constitution and laws of the United States of America, and the 10 Constitution and laws of the State of Hawaii, and will bear true 11 faith and allegiance to the same; that if elected I will 12 faithfully discharge my duties as.....(name of 13 office).....to the best of my ability; that I take 14 this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or 15 purpose of evasion; So help me God."

16 Upon being satisfied as to the sincerity of any person
17 claiming that the person is unwilling to take the above 18 prescribed oath only because the person is unwilling to be 19 sworn, the person may be permitted, in lieu of the oath, to make 20 the person's solemn affirmation which shall be in the same form 21 as the oath except that the words "sincerely and truly affirm"

1 shall be substituted for the word "swear" and the phrases "on 2 oath" and "So help me God" shall be omitted. Such affirmation 3 shall be of the same force and effect as the prescribed oath.

4 The oath or affirmation shall be subscribed before the 5 officer administering the same, who shall endorse thereon the 6 fact that the oath was subscribed and sworn to or the 7 affirmation was made together with the date thereof and affix 8 the seal of the officer's office or of the court of which the 9 officer is a judge or clerk.

10 It shall be the duty of every notary public or other public 11 officer by law authorized to administer oaths to administer the 12 oath or affirmation prescribed by this section and to furnish 13 the required endorsement and authentication."

14 SECTION 8. Section 12-8, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 15 amended as follows:

16 1. By amending subsection (a) to read:

17 "(a) All nomination papers filed in conformity with 18 section 12-3 shall be deemed valid unless objection is made 19 thereto by a registered voter, an officer of a political party 20 whose name is on file with the chief election officer, the chief 21 election officer, or the county clerk in the case of a county

1 office. All objections shall be filed in writing not later than 2 4:30 p.m. on the sixtieth day or the next earliest working day 3 prior to the primary or special election[-]; provided that 4 objections to the nomination papers of presidential candidates 5 shall be filed in writing not later than 4:30 p.m. on the 6 seventy-fifth day or the next earliest working day before the 7 presidential preference primary election."

8 2. By amending subsection (f) to read

9 "(f) If a political party objects to the nomination paper 10 filed by a candidate because the candidate is not a member of 11 the party pursuant to the party's rules filed in conformance 12 with section 11-63, an officer of the party whose name appears 13 on file with the chief election officer shall file a complaint 14 in the circuit court for a prompt determination of the 15 objection; provided that the complaint shall be filed with the 16 clerk of the circuit court not later than 4:30 p.m. on the 17 sixtieth day or the next earliest working day prior to that 18 election day[-]; provided that the complaint shall be filed with 19 the clerk of the circuit court not later than 4:30 p.m. on the 20 seventy-fifth day or the next earliest working day before the 21 presidential preference primary election."

1 SECTION 9. Section 12-9, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is
2 amended to read as follows:

3 "§12-9 List of candidates. As soon as possible but not 4 later than 4:30 p.m. on the fifth day after the close of filing
5 the chief election officer shall transmit to each county clerk
6 and the county clerk shall transmit to the chief election 7 officer certified lists containing the names of all persons, the 8 office for which each is a candidate, and their party 9 designation, or designation of nonpartisanship, as the case may 10 be, for whom nomination papers have been duly filed in his 11 office and who are entitled to be voted for at the primary,
12 special primary or special election[-]; provided that no 13 nonpartisan candidates shall be permitted in a presidential 14 preference primary election."

15 SECTION 10. Section 12-21, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 16 amended to read as follows:

17 "§12-21 Official party ballots. The primary or special 18 primary ballot shall be clearly designated as such. The names
19 of the candidates of each party qualifying under section 11-61 20 or 11-62 and of nonpartisan candidates may be printed on 21 separate ballots, or on a single ballot[-]; provided that there

1 shall not be any names of nonpartisan candidates on the ballot
2 for a presidential preference primary election. The name of 3 each party and the nonpartisan designation shall be distinctly 4 printed and sufficiently separate from each other. The names of 5 all candidates shall be printed on the ballot as provided in 6 section 11-115. When the names of all candidates of the same 7 party for the same office exceed the maximum number of voting
8 positions on a single side of a ballot card, the excess names 9 may be arranged and listed on both sides of the ballot card and 10 additional ballot cards if necessary. When separate ballots for 11 each party are not used, the order in which parties appear on 12 the ballot, including nonpartisan, shall be determined by lot.

13 The chief election officer or the county clerk, in the case 14 of county elections, shall approve printed samples or proofs of 15 the respective party ballots as to uniformity of size, weight, 16 shape, and thickness prior to final printing of the official 17 ballots."

18 SECTION 11. Section 12-31, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 19 amended to read as follows:

20 "§12-31 Selection of party ballot; voting. No person 21 eligible to vote in any primary or special primary election

1 shall be required to state a party preference or nonpartisanship 2 as a condition of voting. Each voter shall be issued the 3 primary or special primary ballot for each party and the 4 nonpartisan primary or special primary ballot. A voter shall be 5 entitled to vote only for candidates of one party or only for 6 nonpartisan candidates[-]; provided that there shall not be any 7 nonpartisan candidates to vote for in a presidential preference
8 primary election. If the primary or special primary ballot is 9 marked contrary to this paragraph, the ballot shall not be 10 counted.

11 In any primary or special primary election in the year 1979
12 and thereafter, a voter shall be entitled to select and to vote 13 the ballot of any one party or nonpartisan, regardless of which 14 ballot the voter voted in any preceding primary or special 15 primary election[-]; provided that there shall not be any 16 nonpartisan candidates to vote for in a presidential preference
17 primary election."

18 SECTION 12. Section 12-41, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 19 amended to read as follows:

20 "§12-41 Result of election. (a) The person or persons 21 receiving the greatest number of votes at the primary or special

1 primary as a candidate of a party for an office shall be the 2 candidate of the party at the following general or special 3 general election but not more candidates for a party than there 4 are offices to be elected; provided that any candidate for any 5 county office who is the sole candidate for that office at the 6 primary or special primary election, or who would not be opposed 7 in the general or special general election by any candidate 8 running on any other ticket, nonpartisan or otherwise, and who 9 is nominated at the primary or special primary election shall, 10 after the primary or special primary election, be declared to be 11 duly and legally elected to the office for which the person was 12 a candidate regardless of the number of votes received by that 13 candidate.

14 (b) Any nonpartisan candidate receiving at least ten per 15 cent of the total votes cast for the office for which the person 16 is a candidate at the primary or special primary, or a vote 17 equal to the lowest vote received by the partisan candidate who 18 was nominated in the primary or special primary, shall also be a 19 candidate at the following election; provided that when more 20 nonpartisan candidates qualify for nomination than there are 21 offices to be voted for at the general or special general

1 election, there shall be certified as candidates for the 2 following election those receiving the highest number of votes, 3 but not more candidates than are to be elected.

4 (c) Notwithstanding subsections (a) and (b), a candidate 5 who receives the most votes in a presidential preference primary 6 election shall not necessarily appear on the general election
7 ballot. The candidates who appear on the general election
8 ballot shall be determined in a manner consistent with section 9 11-113.

10 (d) Political parties shall send delegates to their 11 respective national conventions with each delegate pledged to a 12 presidential candidate in proportion to the votes that each 13 candidate received during the presidential preference primary
14 election."

15 SECTION 13. Section 12-42, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 16 amended to read as follows:

17 "§12-42 Unopposed candidates declared elected. (a) Any 18 candidate running for any office in the State of Hawaii in a 19 special election or special primary election who is the sole 20 candidate for that office shall, after the close of filing of 21 nomination papers, be deemed and declared to be duly and legally

1 elected to the office for which the person is a candidate. The 2 term of office for a candidate elected under this subsection 3 shall begin respectively on the day of the special election or 4 on the day of the immediately succeeding special general
5 election.

6 (b) Any candidate running for any office in the State of 7 Hawaii in a special general election who was only opposed by a 8 candidate or candidates running on the same ticket in the 9 special primary election and is not opposed by any candidate 10 running on any other ticket, nonpartisan or otherwise, and is 11 nominated at the special primary election shall, after the 12 special primary, be deemed and declared to be duly and legally 13 elected to the office for which the person is a candidate at the 14 special primary election regardless of the number of votes 15 received. The term of office for a candidate elected under this 16 subsection shall begin on the day of the special general
17 election.

18 (c) Notwithstanding subsection (a), an unopposed candidate 19 in a presidential preference primary election shall not be 20 considered to have won the general election outright."

1 SECTION 14. There is appropriated out of the general
2 revenues of the State of Hawaii the sum of $ or so 3 much thereof as may be necessary for fiscal year 2023-2024 for 4 the administration of the presidential preference primary.

5 The sum appropriated shall be expended by the office of 6 elections for the purposes of this Act.

7 SECTION 15. Statutory material to be repealed is bracketed
8 and stricken. New statutory material is underscored.

9 SECTION 16. This Act shall take effect on July 1, 2050;
10 provided that the implementation of the presidential preference 11 primary shall take effect on June 1, 2023.
