A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO THE CHILD WELFARE SERVICES.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. The legislature finds that criticism of 2 Hawaii's child welfare system has been increasing and is 3 accentuated whenever there is a tragedy. Shortcomings in 4 Hawaii's child welfare system are not new and there is strong
5 desire in the community to address the tragedies and concerns.
6 Before the disappearance of six-year-old Isabella Kalua at her
7 home in Waimanalo, the effects of the coronavirus disease 2019
8 pandemic were already having an outsized impact on Hawaii's 9 children and youth, further stressing the department of human 10 services and its social services division's child welfare
11 services branch.

12 The legislature further finds that although Native Hawaiian
13 children and families are overrepresented in the State's child
14 welfare system, the same issues and needs relate to all children
15 in the system. Historically, Native Hawaiian ancestors had a 16 very well-structured child welfare system in which the people 17 within the kauhale, or community, shared the responsibilities of

1 caring for and nurturing its keiki. This kuleana, or 2 responsibility and privilege, was collectively shared by 3 everyone. The responsibility of ensuring the welfare of keiki 4 was never meant to rest solely on the government and keiki were 5 certainly not intended to be removed from their ohana without a
6 shared decision on where the keiki would reside. The overall 7 well-being of the keiki was always at the center of any decision 8 made concerning the keiki. Traditional practices of hanai and 9 luhi (adoption or temporary care) were not seen as punitive or 10 demeaning but as means to provide comfort and reassurance that 11 the keiki would be in a safe, nurturing, and caring environment.

12 The legislature also finds that the members of Nā Kama a 13 Hāloa, which is a network of community-based organizations and 14 representatives of the child welfare services branch, that was 15 created by Effective Planning and Innovative Communication,
16 Inc., a nonprofit Hawaii corporation operating as EPIC 'Ohana, 17 Inc., first came together in 2018 to seek ways to address the 18 overrepresentation of Native Hawaiians in Hawaii's child welfare
19 system. Nā Kama a Hāloa demonstrates the value of collaboration 20 for collective impact, and since its formation, the efforts of 21 its working groups have resulted in various positive outcomes.

1 For example, cultural training programs that were developed for 2 new child welfare services branch workers and resource 3 caregivers have now become a requirement by the department of 4 human services. Furthermore, the department now supports and 5 encourages connecting children in the child welfare system with 6 their siblings and reflecting the voices of the children's 7 makua, or parents, in their care.

8 The legislature finds that the problems faced by children 9 and families in the State's child welfare system are extremely 10 complex and cannot be resolved by the department of human 11 services alone. The legislature further finds that, to address
12 and resolve these diverse and multi-faceted problems, the State 13 must work with the community and various stakeholders to 14 determine where the core infrastructure is failing.

15 The legislature also finds that Act 291, Sessions Laws of 16 Hawaii 2022, established on a temporary basis, the office of 17 wellness and resilience within the office of the governor to 18 address the various barriers that impact the physical, social,
19 and emotional well-being of all people in the State by building 20 wellness and resilience through trauma-informed, strengths-based 21 strategies; and support agencies in their individual reform

1 efforts to address trauma-informed care and move toward a
2 collaborative, shared purpose of collective system reform.

3 The legislature finds that by establishing a working group 4 within the office of wellness and resilience that consists of 5 members of the child welfare services branch, Native Hawaiian 6 serving institutions, contract service providers, community-
7 based organizations, and birth parents and youth with lived
8 experience in the State's child welfare system, outcomes can be 9 improved for not just Native Hawaiian children and families but 10 for all children and families in the State's child welfare
11 system. The legislature also believes that the working group
12 will contribute to the development of more effective community
13 supports while allowing the community to be heard and take more 14 responsibility for the well-being and welfare of children.

15 Accordingly, the purpose of this Act is to improve the 16 State's child welfare system by:

17 (1) Establishing within the office of wellness and 18 resilience the malama ohana working group to seek, 19 design, and recommend transformative changes to the 20 State's existing child welfare system;

1 (2) Authorizing the office of wellness and resilience to 4 in carrying out its duties;

- 13 (4) The director of human services, or the director's 14 designee;

16 welfare services branch representing its

4 the chief executive officer's designee; and

7 (c) The malama ohana working group shall develop 8 recommendations to establish a child welfare system that is 9 trauma informed, sustains a community-based partnership, and is 10 responsive to the needs of children and families in the system
11 and the community. In fulfilling its purpose, the working group 12 shall:

13 (1) Conduct informational meetings throughout the State
14 with affected constituencies;

16 coordinate and improve the protection and well-being 17 of children and families in the child welfare system;

18 (3) Identify training, best practices, assessment
19 criteria, and methods to sustain an effective 20 workforce within the child welfare services branch and

1 within the larger circle of community agencies serving 2 the child welfare system;

3 (4) Identify best practices, including those from Native
4 Hawaiian cultural practices, to assist children and 5 youth who were involved in the child welfare system
6 and their families;

7 (5) Identify other cultural practices that build wellness
8 and resilience in communities and collaboration
9 between communities and the child welfare services 10 branch; and

11 (6) Collaborate with the trauma-informed care task force,
12 and where appropriate, conduct joint informational
13 meetings.

14 (d) Members of the malama ohana working group shall serve
15 without compensation but shall be reimbursed for reasonable
16 expenses necessary for the performance of their duties,
17 including travel expenses.

18 (e) The office of wellness and resilience may contract
19 with an administrative facilitator to provide necessary support
20 for the malama ohana working group in carrying out its duties,

1 including preparation of the report required pursuant to 2 subsection (f).

3 (f) The malama ohana working group shall submit a report
4 of its findings and recommendations, including any proposed 5 legislation, to the legislature no later than twenty days prior 6 to the convening of the regular session of 2025.

7 (g) The malama ohana working group shall be dissolved upon 8 adjournment sine die of the regular session of 2025.

9 SECTION 3. There is appropriated out of the general
10 revenues of the State of Hawaii the sum of $250,000 or so much 11 thereof as may be necessary for fiscal year 2023-2024 and the 12 same sum or so much thereof as may be necessary for fiscal year
13 2024-2025 for the malama ohana working group established 14 pursuant to this Act, including for the office of wellness and
