18 An amount of stock may be reported by number of shares.

19 (h) The state ethics commission shall provide a method for 20 filing financial disclosure statements. The commission may

1 require that financial disclosure statements be filed
2 electronically.

3 (i) Failure of a legislator, a delegate to the
4 constitutional convention, or an employee to file a disclosure
5 of financial interests as required by this section shall be a
6 violation of this chapter. Any legislator, delegate to a
7 constitutional convention, or employee who fails to file a
8 disclosure of financial interests when due [~~shall~~] may be
9 assessed an administrative fine of [~~$75-~~] $50. The state ethics
10 commission, upon the expiration of the time allowed for filing,
11 may post on its website for public inspection a list of all
12 persons who have failed to file financial disclosure statements.
13 The state ethics commission shall notify a person, by in-person
14 service, electronic mail to the person's state electronic mail
15 address, or [~~first class~~] first-class mail, of the failure to 16 file, and [~~the disclosure of financial interests shall be~~
17 ~~submitted to the state ethics commission not later than 4:30~~
18 ~~p.m. on the tenth day after notification of the failure to file~~
19 ~~has been mailed to the person.], if applicable, the 20 administrative fine. If a disclosure of financial interests has 21 not been filed within [~~ten days of the due date, an additional~~~~

1 ~~administrative fine of $10 for each day a disclosure remains~~
2 ~~unfiled shall be added to the administrative fine. All~~
3 ~~administrative fines collected under this section shall be~~
4 ~~deposited in the State's general fund. Any administrative fine~~
5 ~~for late filing shall be in addition to any other action the~~
6 ~~state ethics commission may take under this chapter for~~
7 ~~violations of the state ethics code. The state ethics~~
8 ~~commission may waive any administrative fines assessed under~~ 9 ~~this subsection for good cause shown.] thirty days after the~~ 10 ~~original deadline, in addition to any initial administrative~~
11 ~~fine that may have been assessed, an administrative fine of $250~~
12 ~~may be assessed.~~

13 (j) The chief election officer, upon receipt of the 14 nomination paper of any person seeking a state elective office,
15 including the office of delegate to the constitutional
16 convention, shall notify the state ethics commission of the name
17 of the candidate for state office and the date on which the 18 person filed the nomination paper. Any candidate who fails to 19 file a disclosure of financial interests when due may be
20 assessed an administrative fine of $50. The state ethics
21 commission, upon the expiration of the time allowed for filing,

1 ~~[shall release to the]~~ may post on its website for public
2 inspection a list of all candidates who have failed to file
3 financial disclosure statements ~~[and shall immediately assess a~~
4 ~~late filing penalty fee against those candidates of $50, which~~
5 ~~shall be collected by the state ethics commission and deposited~~
6 ~~into the general fund. The state ethics commission may~~
7 ~~investigate, initiate, or receive charges as to whether a~~
8 ~~candidate's financial disclosure statement discloses the~~
9 ~~financial interests required to be disclosed. After proceeding~~
10 ~~in conformance with section 84-31, the state ethics commission~~
11 ~~may issue a decision as to whether a candidate has complied with~~ 12 ~~section 84-17(f) and this decision shall be a matter of public~~
13 ~~record].~~ The state ethics commission shall notify a candidate,
14 by in-person service, electronic mail to the candidate's
15 electronic mail address listed with the office of elections, or 16 first-class mail, of the failure to file and, if applicable, the
17 administrative fine. If a disclosure of financial interests has 18 not been filed within thirty days after the original deadline,
19 in addition to any initial administrative fine that may have 20 been assessed, an administrative fine of $250 may be assessed.

1 (k) If notice and order of an administrative fine has been
2 issued pursuant to this section, the order shall become final on
3 the twentieth day after it is served upon the alleged violator,
4 unless the alleged violator submits a written request for a
5 hearing before the state ethics commission on or before the
6 twentieth day. After conducting a hearing pursuant to chapter
7 91, the state ethics commission may affirm, modify, or rescind
8 the order as appropriate. The state ethics commission may file
9 with the circuit court of the first circuit any order the 10 commission has issued pursuant to this section for the purpose
11 of confirming the order as a final judgment that shall have the 12 same force and effect and shall be enforceable and collectable
13 as other judgments issued by the circuit courts; provided that 14 there shall be no appeal from the judgment.

15 (l) All administrative fines collected under this section
16 shall be deposited into the general fund. Any administrative
17 fine for the late filing of a disclosure of financial interests
18 shall be in addition to any other action the state ethics
19 commission may take pursuant to this chapter. The state ethics
20 commission may waive any administrative fines authorized
21 pursuant to this section for good cause shown.

1 (m) The state ethics commission may investigate, initiate,
2 or receive charges on whether a candidate's financial disclosure
3 statement discloses the financial interests required to be
4 disclosed. After proceeding in conformance with section 84-31,
5 the state ethics commission may issue a decision on whether a
6 candidate has complied with subsection (f). This decision shall 7 be a matter of public record."

8 SECTION 3. This Act does not affect rights and duties that 9 matured, penalties that were incurred, and proceedings that were 10 begun before its effective date.

11 SECTION 4. Statutory material to be repealed is bracketed
12 and stricken. New statutory material is underscored.

13 SECTION 5. This Act shall take effect upon its approval.
